TWO NATIONS DIVIDED OVER TOKYO TREATY

Washington, Dec. 29—(AP)—A final split between Russia and the United States over drafting a Japanese peace treaty appears almost inevitable.

An exchange of notes between the two powers, the latest released here last night, disclosed several major points of conflict which diplomats doubt can be resolved. The United States shows every intention of pressing for a treaty regardless of Russia's attitude.

The American note released last night answered half a dozen questions which the Soviet Union had put to this government on Nov. 20 regarding American intentions on a peace settlement.

Points of difference which now emerge from the exchange are mainly these:

1. The United States rejects Russia's contention that any of the great powers should have a veto over the treaty. This means that if Russia will not go along on terms acceptable to this and other friendly nations, then the United States is prepared to go forward without Russia.

2. The United States is going ahead without consulting Communist China, despite Russia's emphasis on Red Chinese interest in Japan. It is pointed out that Washington has no diplomatic relations with the Peiping regime. Moreover there is no current prospect that such relations will be established.

3. The United States considers that it is "reasonable" for Japan to participate with this and with other nations in arrangements for a Japanese defense which "could include provision for the stationing in Japan of troops of the United States and other nations."

4. The United States is standing by its proposal for a future decision, either by the great powers or by the United Nations, on the status of Formosa. This is U. S. policy despite the 1943 Cairo agreement that Formosa should be restored to China. The Russians interpret that as meaning Communist China.

HERSHEY CONTRACT

Hershey, Dec. 29—(AP)—A new contract signed by the Hershey Chocolate Corporation and union workers today discarded a cost-of-living adjustment clause previously in effect and substituted a general 7-cents an hour wage increase. The contract affects some 4,000 chocolate workers.

NEW YEAR WEEKEND WEATHER FORECAST

Extended weather forecast for period Saturday, Dec. 30 through Wednesday, Jan. 3:

Western Pennsylvania, eastern New York, Ohio, West Virginia—Snow flurries western New York and Pennsylvania Saturday; snow likely late Monday or Tuesday; total precipitation one-tenth to three-tenths inch; colder Saturday and Sunday; rising trend Monday; colder Wednesday; temperatures will average two to four degrees below normal.

Government Clamps Tighter Curbs on Bank Credits and Opens Wage-Price Offices

Washington, Dec. 29—(AP)—The government's defense production and anti-inflation drives today:

1. Cut down sharply on the money banks have available for lending.
2. Established firm controls over supplies and use of natural rubber and cobalt, two materials essential in making hundreds of kinds of civilian and defense goods.
3. Brought announcement of plans for 13 regional wage-price offices. Several agencies figured in the moves.

A federal reserve board order to its 6,885 member banks called for freezing $2,000,000,000 out of the loan market.

The board said its action would cut off a potential further increase of $12,000,000,000 in the already record-high volume of bank loans. This is because banks could have lent the $2 billion dollars over and over again.

The Economic Stabilization Agency (ESA) announced that it will open 13 regional offices "to handle price and wage problems," a step apparently paving the way for stricter controls expected later.

The National Production Authority (NPA) decreed that the U. S. will take over immediately as sole importer and distributor of natural rubber. Since it already controls synthetic production this move puts the government in virtual control of all rubber.

NPA announced this new move last night only a few hours after it had forbidden hoarding of 55 essential materials, including steel, lumber and paper. An NPA spokesman interpreted the latter ban to apply to newsprint.

In another order today, NPA slapped tight controls on use of cobalt, a metal essential in many products. Beginning Feb. 1, the government will parcel out supplies of it. Cobalt goes into the enamel used for bathtubs, refrigerators and washing machines. It also is used in the magnet for radio and television speakers. NPA officials said TV and radio manufacture likely would be hit "extremely hard."

The federal reserve board's credit curb action was announced last night after banks had closed. Today the board called on industry for a more rapid switchover from civilian to defense production.

The board's money freeze means there will be less lend to business firms, or to individuals who want to buy houses, autos, television sets, furniture, stock market securities, or anything else.

The board's freeze was effected by raising "reserve requirements"—the proportion of deposits that member banks are required to post with federal reserve authorities as non-lendable reserves.

Reserve system member banks account for the great bulk of U. S. bank deposits and loans, although they constitute a minority of the nation's 15,000 banks. It is up to state banking authorities whether to apply a similar freeze to the remaining banks.

AUTHOR WEDS

New York, Dec. 29—(AP)—Author John Steinbeck and Elaine Anderson Scott were married yesterday. She was divorced last week from Actor Zachary Scott. It was Steinbeck's third marriage. The private ceremony was at the home of Steinbeck's publisher, Harold K. Guinzburg.

Usual Church Services, Club Parties And Private Gatherings to Welcome '51

The usual schedule of watch night services, club parties and private home gatherings will usher in the new year Sunday night a survey in and around Warren discloses. Because the old year fades out on a Sunday evening celebrations will be tempered somewhat at least until after the midnight hour.

Most churches in the borough and county announce "watch night" services, many of which will start early in the evening, ending with prayerful greetings to the new year at midnight.

Public and semi-private affairs will be confined to those clubs that are permitted to be open on Sundays, and numerous gay parties have been arranged, with each having reservations for capacity crowds.

The weekend will be a quiet one so far as the borough is concerned, with most industries and stores planning to close Sunday and Monday.

In keeping with a custom started many years ago there will be no issue of the Times-Mirror New Year's Day.

As usual the Library theater is advertising a special midnight show with an excellent program featuring the highly sensational movie, "Destination Moon."

One of the leading social events of the New Year's weekend will be the Mid-County ball scheduled for (Turn to Page Twelve)

INCREASE IN JOBLESS PAY AIM OF LABOR

Harrisburg, Dec. 29—(AP)—Organized labor in Pennsylvania girded today for a fight in the 1951 legislature for a flat $10 a week increase in maximum jobless pay benefits.

Both the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and the Pennsylvania CIO Council served notice they will strive for this goal.

They will also seek similar increases in maximum weekly amounts of workmen's compensation and occupational disease benefits, and will ask that the present minimum level of $9 a week for these benefits be jumped to $20.

The state CIO sought a similar schedule of compensation increases in the 1949 legislature, but the AFL asked for a maximum boost in weekly benefits to $32. The legislature countered, however, by raising the maximum from $20 to $25 a week.

Governor-elect John S. Fine has agreed to increases in jobless pay benefits, but he has not said to what extent. Labor leaders will meet with Fine soon after the first of the year to discuss the matter.

Organized labor also will seek establishment of a new minimum wage rate in the state. The state AFL has set its sights on 75-cents an hour, but the CIO is asking for a minimum $1 an hour rate.

Labor will seek to change the State Labor Relations Act by removing what the leaders describe as present "restrictions and prohibitions," as well as to require a hearing before a court can issue an injunction against a labor union.

In all, some 200 bills aimed at betterment of conditions for the worker will be offered in the 1951 legislature by labor unions.

The legislature will be asked to give priority attention to a proposed package of civil defense laws granting state officials widespread power to cope with any emergency.

C. A. Miller, state civil defense director, said the proposed package of civil defense laws is now in process of preparation by the state justice department.

The proposed new legislation will be similar to a series of laws enacted during World War Two, with changes to meet new conditions. All World War Two laws pertaining to defense were suspended in 1945.

Amputee's Mother Plans Extended Visit At Hospital

Washington, Dec. 29—(AP)—Mrs. Clara Smith, whose soldier son Robert is the first quadruple amputee of the Korean war, plans to remain in Washington at least a week to be near him.

This week came today from Mrs. Marie Heintz of the Walter Reed Hospital staff who said, however, the plans of the Middleburg, Pa. widow are not complete.

Private Smith, 20, arrived at Walter Reed Wednesday night. His mother flew to Washington yesterday to see him.

Mrs. Heintz said Robert was "a little tired" after yesterday's excitement of seeing his mother and the photographic and other activities that were involved in the meeting.

Gift Shower Awaits New Year's Baby

Through the cooperation of Warren and North Warren merchants and the Times-Mirror, a shower of many valuable gifts awaits Warren's first baby of 1951.

The gifts will be awarded the first baby born after midnight Sunday in the borough of Warren or the first baby born at Maternity Hospital whose parents are residents of Warren county.

The date, hour and minute of birth, sex of the baby, parents' names and address must be confirmed by the attending physician.

Gifts offered by the merchants to greet the newcomer are:

Crib mattress from Waxman's Furniture store.

Beacon Cloth Bunting from Metzger-Wrights.

Three dozen diapers from the J. C. Penney Store.

Bottle warmer from C. Beckleys.

Hand-made Madera dress with three matching diapers from Bert's Children's Shop.

Choice of gold chain and locket or a gold chain and cross from Darling's Jewelry and Home appliance Store.

Six 4x6 photos in folders from Stokes Studio.

Sweater set from Dorothy-Ann Children's Shop.

Bathinett from Blomquist Furniture Shop, North Warren.

Pair of First Step Shoes from Brown's Boot Shop.

A crib blanket from Kresge's.

A $3.00 gift from the Warren County Dairy association.

$5.00 in merchandise from the Mullen Drug Co.

Million-Year-Old Ice For Cocktails

Juneau, Alaska, Dec. 29—(AP)—Two hundred pounds of million-year-old cocktail ice is winging its way to New York City.

The ice, from ages-old Mendenhall Glacier near here, was ordered for the Explorers Club annual banquet at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York Jan. 13.

Maynard Miller, club member and director of the Juneau Icecap Research Project with offices at New York, ordered the antique drink-chiller. It was put aboard a Pan American plane for Seattle last night, whence United Air Lines will haul the chill chunk eastward.

Nine-Year-Old Boy Is Shot To Death

Pittsburgh, Dec. 29—(AP)—A railroad fireman last night forced his way into a home where he once lived and shot to death a nine-year-old boy, Police Chief Nick Antonelli of McKees Rocks said.

Antonelli identified the assailant as Eugene Miller, 42. He said Miller wounded himself and two other persons, one of them a child of three.

The slain boy was Henry John Rbst.

Antonelli said Miller went on his shooting rampage apparently out of jealousy. He said Miller had threatened Mrs. Isabella Lober, who lives in the house, after she refused to see him.

As reported by Antonelli, Miller first shot Mrs. Lober's 40-year-old husband, Walter, injuring him seriously, and then fired twice at Mrs. Lober herself who with her small son and the Rbst boy fled toward the back of the house.

He was charged with murder, and a police guard placed over him at the hospital.

"... who stopped our Times-Mirror Want Ad?"

Fire causing an estimated loss of $25,000 destroyed the boiler house and a warehouse of the G. G. Greene Metal Stamping plant at Starbrick shortly after seven o'clock last evening. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

Officials of the company said this morning that the boiler house, a concrete building, was gutted and badly damaged. A nearby warehouse, containing a quantity of machinery and many boxes and containers, was entirely destroyed. The warehouse was a frame building.

Warren firemen, called to the emergency truck to the scene, and arrived in time to save the main plant which was just beginning to burn. One side of the building was somewhat scorched and windows were broken, but damage was not extensive, officials said.

The main plant is in full operation today, and additional warehouse space will be secured, they said. They stated that aluminum siding was being installed on the main building, and was probably responsible for the small damage to that plant.

Fire equipment returned to Warren shortly after 10 o'clock.

At 11:40 p. m., all equipment turned out for a fire at the home of Louis Hendrickson, 18 Ludlow street, where a quantity of kindling wood, being dried out on top of the furnace, became ignited.

Fire was confined to the cellar of the home, and no estimate of the damage has been made. Engines 1 and 3 and the aerial truck responded to the alarm. Equipment returned to stations at 12:50 a. m. today.

COURT RULES NELSON MUST STAY AT HOME

Pittsburgh, Dec. 29—(AP)—If Steve Nelson, western Pennsylvania Communist party chairman, wants to consult New York political and economic experts, they'll have to come to Pittsburgh to see him.

Nelson asked a three-man Allegheny county court to liberalize his $10,000 bond so he can travel outside the county. He faces a trial here next month on sedition charges and another Jan. 8 in Washington, D. C., on a contempt of congress charge.

He argued he had to consult New York experts on his defense. Ruled the court:

"The train runs both ways. The experts can come here."

Champion Liar Wanders Far Afield for Locale of His Weird Weather Story

Burlington, Wis., Dec. 29—(AP)—A Californian who wandered far afield for the locale of a weird weather story was crowned today as the world's champion liar of 1950.

This Burlington Liars' club picked this one by Frank J. Goulette, of Alhambra, Calif., from a pack of lies submitted from all over the nation and from foreign lands in its annual contest.

"One winter, while I was working on a pile driver in North Dakota it got so cold that one night a member of our crew froze to death in bed."

"The ground was frozen so hard that it was impossible to dig a grave. In fact, we never did find out how far down it was frozen."

But this I do know: Seeing we couldn't dig a grave, we stood the fellow on his head under the pile-driver—and we had to drive on him seven days and seven nights before we got him down far enough for a decent burial!"

Camp Atterbury, Ind., Dec. 29—(AP)—New Year's Eve starts tonight for half the men of the 28th Infantry Division.

They are the half that stayed in camp last weekend while the others went home for five days over Christmas. It's their turn for five-day holiday leaves this weekend.

Two special trains, four chartered planes, many special buses, and private cars will take them home.

One of the special trains will leave from Indianapolis for northern Pennsylvania points. The other will leave here and connect with trains for central Pennsylvania.

The planes will take 125 men to Philadelphia and New York. Special cars are to be added to trains to Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago.

For the men who stay in camp this weekend, the recreation will include a New Year's Eve dance. More than 500 girls are to be brought from Indianapolis.

Variety of Investigations Give Police Dep't Members Busy Day and Evening

In sharp contrast with Wednesday night, when no entries appeared on the police docket, officers were kept on the jump yesterday and last night with a variety of matters.

At the request of the Jamestown, N. Y., police, local officers made a check of the town in search of five rolls of copper wire taken from a telephone company warehouse there. The rolls were not found in Warren.

Officers made a hurried run to Beaty playgrounds where two boys were reported stealing shoes and skates. They found that the two shoes and boots, and helped them find the proper ones in the pile. The missing footwear was found and everybody was happy.

A report of a parked car hit on Grant street last evening was investigated but no report filed because of damage being less than $100.

Officers, on their rounds, heard a suspicious noise at the rear of Everett Hardware Company. Investigation disclosed a broken frozen pipe which had flooded the cellar of the store with four to five inches of water. Police notified the manager.

Officers were called to the Ludlow street fire after 11 p. m. to direct traffic at that point until firemen could bring the blaze under control.

AT THE COLUMBIA THEATRE—As an angel who materializes on earth in the body of a cowboy, Clifton Webb falls into the clutches of lovely Joan Blondell in this scene from the Twentieth Century-Fox comedy "For Heaven's Sake" which opens Saturday at the Columbia Theatre. With Civilian Demand at All-Time Peak Oil Industry Enters Into Troubled Year

By SAM DAWSON
New York—(AP)—The oil industry heads into a new and troubled year with civilian demand for its products already at an all-time peak.
Oil is an essential of modern war. But most oilmen insist that in spite of the headaches they expect in 1951 the industry should be able to satisfy both military and civilian demand next year—if given half a break.
Military demand is bound to rise in the months ahead as the army adds new tanks and trucks, the air force adds new planes and the Navy adds more ships and sails more miles.
But the nation's oil productive capacity is rising, too. The industry has been pouring $2 billion a year into expansion and modernization. More wells than ever are being drilled. Oilmen are fighting to see that enough steel is allocated them for drilling wells, building refineries and tankers, laying new additions to the nation's network of pipelines.
Oilmen disagree as to how much reserves the nation could tap in a long-term emergency. Some estimate domestic production—which averaged around 5,405,000 barrels a day this year—could be stepped up by 1,325,000 more barrels a day, if the military gave the word. Others have said perhaps only 680,000 barrels a day could be added efficiently, over a protracted term. By "efficiently" oilmen mean the maximum amount that can be pumped from the nation's wells without loss of potential oil—if more than the efficient amount is pumped daily, some of the underground oil seeps away and is lost forever.
But whatever the amount of oil that is now in a position to assure itself of synthetic oil from its vast coal reserves. Although the process is still too expensive for commercial use—in the opinion of some oilmen—the government is now producing gasoline from coal in impressive quantities at its experimental plant in Louisiana, La. In an emergency, when expense is no object, the United States could count on a synthetic gasoline industry, just as it can on a synthetic rubber industry.

ON SHAKEDOWN CRUISE—Seaman Apprentice Raymond Ristau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ristau, 5 Averill street, is now on a shakedown cruise aboard an aircraft carrier following completion of boot training at the Great Lakes (Ill.) training center. He was home Sunday for a one-day visit before reporting to New York for his new assignment.

The American Petroleum Institute reports today on the state of the natural oil industry as it heads into a year dedicated to defense production. Domestic demand for oil and its products rose 11 percent in 1950 to an estimated 6,455,000 barrels a day. Domestic oil production, at 5,405,000 barrels a day, was larger than in 1949, it is not quite as high as in 1948. To this production was added some 493,000 barrels a day of natural gasoline, and around 844,000 barrels a day of imported oil. Middle East oil was flowing to the United States at a rate of around 120,000 barrels a day—a supply we could not rely on in the event of war. During 1950 the United States was exporting petroleum and its products at the rate of 288,000 barrels a day, much of it to Canada, which is now developing an oil industry of its own.
Refining capacity has risen to a new and comforting high. The industry can now handle 6,732,000 barrels a day, API reports. This is a gain of 36 per cent over refining capacity at the outbreak of World War II.
API says that despite the all-time high demand for oil in the United States, the wholesale price of crude oil and its products had advanced only one per cent this year—while the index of wholesale prices of all commodities was going up 4.1 per cent.
But in spite of this moderation in raising oil product prices, the industry apparently did pretty well in earnings. The Chase National Bank of New York estimates that the combined earnings of 30 oil companies it studied will rise 18 per cent this year to around $1.6 billion—before imposition of the proposed excess profits tax.
The bank says cash dividends of the oil industry will probably hit a new high total of around $633 million when all of this year's reports are in—a gain of 21 per cent from last year.
Carefully compiled statistics seem to indicate that tread wear on automobile tires decreases with temperature.

AT THE LIBRARY THEATRE—The rocket ship "Luna" speeding away from the earth bound for the moon, at seven miles per second, is shown somewhere miles above the city of New York. In it are four men who dare to set out on the first interplanetary trip in history. The scene is from George Pal's Technicolor picture, "Destination Moon," which will open midnight, Saturday, December 30th at the Library Theatre.

CAMP COUNSELLORS ENJOY A REUNION

A reunion-outing of last summer's YMCA camp counsellors numbering about 20 and including guests, gathered at Camp Jefmore last night to talk over old times and make preparations for the campers' reunion that was held today at the "Y" from nine until two o'clock. The group joined in singing old camp songs, dancing, games and enjoyed refreshments that were served.
This morning the younger set turned out in force for a program of movies, games, gym periods and a swim in the pool. Each boy brought his own lunch and milk was served at the "Y".

Night-time traffic fatalities are reduced an average of 76 per cent by modernizing street lighting, tests reveal.

Here And There

The welcoming of the 20th century included mentions of the following:

At the First Presbyterian church a reception was held beginning at 8:30 o'clock. On the program were the Rev. S. M. Nickle, H. E. Dodge and J. T. Brennan.

It was stated that "a midnight mass was held at St. Joseph's church in accordance with special permission granted by the pope."

Other meetings listed were: The Scandinavian Brotherhood of America in the S. V. O. hall; services in the Swedish church in Market street; cottage watch night services by members of the Baptist church at the residence of L. W. Archibald, Market street; "Return party" held by young people of the community at the State Armory, dancing party given by the Seneca Club at the D. O. H. hall.

On New Year's Day it was noted that the Columbian Athletic club held the annual "open house" in the club rooms in the Waters Block and it was also reported the "open house" at the YMCA was a great success in every way, with over 1,000 persons visiting the building during the day, by actual count.

Morning Pickups. There are a number of Warren residents who can recall the year 1909 when the famous conductor, Walter Damrosch, who passed away this week, brought his New York Symphony orchestra to Chautauqua, and thereby laid the foundations of the

DON'T GREET NEW YEAR FROM HOSPITAL

According to the National Safety Council, 269 persons were killed and about 9,000 injured in United States traffic accidents over the New Year's holiday last year. This was a frightful price for the annual gaiety. No one begrudges the fun but we are all beginning to dread the fearful and, too often, final consequences.

The three-day holiday weekend this year will take 330 lives in traffic crashes, the Safety Council estimates.

The forecast, covering immediate deaths occurring between six p. m. tonight and midnight Monday, comes on the heels of one of the bloodiest Christmas holidays in history when 345 motorists or pedestrians lost their lives.

Ned H. Dearborn, Council president, says he hopes the tragic Christmas will shock the public into safer driving this weekend. He offers some suggestions to those who want to be alive in 1951:

1. Leave the car in the garage and use public transportation especially if you intend to drink.
2. Go on the theory that the other fellow's driver or walker, may be woozy and allow him plenty of room.
3. Refuse to ride with a drinking driver.
4. Double your caution in bad weather and hold down your speed.

ALL OUT FOR FREEDOM IN 1951

What we Americans must resolve this New Year is abundantly clear. We must make ourselves as strong militarily as our resources in men and material will allow. For only in the full marshalling of our strength is there any hope of peace.

We must not quail at the hard sacrifices this talk will impose upon us. No sacrifice, even that of our lives, is too great to make to save our liberties. Should the moment ever come when we would rather have bread than freedom, then our great adventure in human endeavor will be over.

We cannot thus abandon the field to the barbaric, unmoral totalitarians who today wear the dress of communism but are still the tyrants of old. We cannot forsake all that America has built, all that western civilization has been moving toward for centuries.

We must stand here, where we are. And we must stand now. To wait longer might mean we will never be able to stand against the force that could be arrayed opposite us.

It seems cruelly unfair that with the expenditure of so much treasure and so much blood in World War II, we were able to buy so little peace and happiness. Five short years, years of booming prosperity to be sure, but years marred by the dislocations of a war just ended and the fears of another that could start at a dictator's whim.

This may seem small recompense indeed for great sacrifices already made. But it must not be forgotten that we did save our freedom. We are not today the slaves of Hitler and Mussolini.

If we and all others in the free world are not to become the slaves of Stalin, we therefore must plunge ahead and do again—on a bigger scale—all the onerous and painful tasks that together spell the preservation of liberty.

None can escape this responsibility, nor tell himself his energy and ability are not required. Total effort is needed.

The quality of a nation's life is always measured by the sum of the millions of individual contributions to its well-being. Nothing is lost in this accounting. Never is this more true or more meaningful than when a country is struggling, as ours now is, for its very survival.

MID-CENTURY PRAYER FOR PEACE

Methodists of Warren county will join Sunday with the denomination's nearly nine million members in a national mid-century Prayer for Peace.

The call to special prayer was sounded by the Methodist Council of Bishops and the church's general board of evangelism in view of the exceptionally grave condition of the world today. In a letter to 42,000 Methodist churches, the board urged every congregation to unite in a chain of prayer on Mid-century Sunday.

Declaring that mankind's hope for freedom is in desperate jeopardy, the plea for prayer coincided with similar request by the president of the new National Council of Churches, Episcopal Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill of New York. He urges all Protestants to offer prayers December 31 for "a peace which is the fruit of righteousness."

Price-Wage Agency's Moves Called Only 'Guideposts'

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Economic Stabilization Agency's first general action in the price field should not be misunderstood. It should not be interpreted as a price control order, nor as a price freeze, says ESA's General Counsel Francis P. Whitehair.

All the new agency tried to do was to set up a guide, or a formula by which any business firm could determine for itself whether to raise prices, hold the line, or cut them back. ESA Administrator Alan Valentine had to begin some place, says Mr. Whitehair. "This was it. Mr. Whitehair gives an oversimplified example to show what is intended by the new price standards. Suppose some company made five per cent profits in the first three years after the war, then suffered reverses in the 1949 recession which cut profits to one per cent. If in 1950 the company raised profits to four per cent, ESA would have no interest in trying to cut back its prices.

If, however, the company increased its prices so that its profits shot up to nine per cent, then ESA thinks it should consider cutting back its prices.

As applied to wholesale or retail trade establishments, gross margins should not be increased above the June, 1950, level, unless the store's profits fall below the 1946-49 average.

Price lines should not be changed, says ESA. Inventories should not be marked up above costs. Prices should not be based on forecast of future shortages. Individual items sold at a loss should be increased in price only enough to show a profit or to cover increased costs of wages and materials, whichever is lower.

BECAUSE the new ESA standards have been based on profit figures, there is bound to be some belief that the new price agency has in mind limitation of profit. This was one of the charges most frequently thrown against OPA.

ESA spokesmen now say they have no intent to control profits. They insist that they want to preserve the free enterprise system. They say they know business can't keep running on losses.

As Price Stabilization Director Michael V. DiSalle puts it, the new standards are not intended to limit profits earned by any company, except as to profits generated by price increases. There is no intention to control profits arising from increased volume of sales or greater efficiency resulting in cost reductions.

Net effect of the new pricing standards guide is expected to be a division of business houses into compliers and non-compliers. In the last war, OPA officials used to say that over 90 per cent of business complied with price ceiling orders. It was the less than 10 per cent of non-compliers who caused all the trouble.

This has been the pattern in handling the first freeze order on automobile prices. ESA Counsel Whitehair makes clear that this auto price roll back was a temporary measure, subject to later revision. Again it was a case of making a start somewhere.

THE start was an order to Ford and General Motors to roll back prices to Dec. 1 levels. Ford complied, General Motors refused, at first, but after a few days, complied.

The action by General Motors in ordering its dealers to store new cars, and not sell them, could have been taken by ESA as an attempted evasion of a price regulation. This is clearly made a violation of one section of the Defense Production Act—402 (g)—although in another section—406—the law says: "Nothing in this title shall be construed to require any person to sell any material or service..." and so forth.

It will probably take a court test to clear up this apparent contradiction in the law. There are bound to be many court tests on nearly every section of the law. As previously pointed out in this space, the law may be found to be unworkable.

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

The students' Christmas recital held last evening in the Conservatory attracted the largest crowd of the season. Harrison Birch, a concert pianist for many years, having made nine transcontinental tours, was the feature of the evening playing a number by Cyril Scott, also a very beautiful "Valse Mystique" written by Hubert Zwald.

Home from school for the holidays are Miss Elizabeth Trax from Maryland College; Byron Elder from Bliss Electrical School; Walter Mouter from the University of Michigan; Miss Florence W. Jacobs from Mount Holyoke.

Will Rogers is appearing on the Library screen in "Lightning". The Columbia features "Tollable David" with Richard Cromwell and Noah Beery.

Scoring an even greater success than upon his first appearance early this year, Dr. Ralph Davis, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Erie today held Warren Romanians entranced with another of his thoughtful and thought-provoking extemporaneous talks.

Today marks the tenth anniversary of the Pennsylvania Railroad's employee representation plan, by which labor questions are settled between elected representatives of the employees and the management.

War Bulletins: Business center of London is an inferno after a night of horror. British government charges attempt to destroy the capital. Scores of landmarks are damaged or destroyed. St. Paul's cathedral again imperilled.

The speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club next Monday noon will be Charles E. Congdon, well known attorney of Salamanca, N. Y., who will talk on "Indian Medicine, Societies and Dances."

That little barrel of cinematic dynamite—lousied haired Mickey Rooney—heads the list of the ten biggest money making movie stars for 1940 with Bette Davis in ninth place and Judy Garland in tenth. Spencer Tracy placed second while following in order came Clark Gable, Gene Autry, Tyrone Power, James Cagney, Bing Crosby and Wallace Beery.

The annual Warren High-Collegian basketball clash will be staged this evening. Among the Dragons who will attempt to halt their alma mater are Paul Weaver, Bob Taub, Palmer Davis, Phil Africa, Bob Johnson and Scotty Calderwood. Bill Lutz will be out of action due to an injured hand.

Tips On Tuning

There are several sporting events to be broadcast over WNAE and WNAE-FM during the coming week with special emphasis on this weekend. On Friday night the Warren High Dragons will play one just for fun. This is the annual game with the Alumni team to see if the boys from last year are as good as the current team. People who predict the outcome of such games have more insight than I. Next Tuesday night the Kane Hi Wolves invade the Dragon territory with the Dragons out for a measure of revenge for the drubbing they took in Kane. If you can't be at Beaty gym, both games will be broadcast over WNAE-FM.

There are great things in the football world awaiting sports fans this weekend over WNAE-FM. There are two big games scheduled for Saturday over Mutual.

NETWORK PROGRAMS

Time is eastern standard. For central standard subtract one hour, for mountain standard subtract two hours. Some local stations change hour of relay to fit local schedules. Last minute program changes cannot be included.

At 2:45 the annual Blue-Gray game will be the feature presentation to be followed by the All Star East-West game at 5:00. The evening news and sports shows will be moved back so that the second game will be heard in its entirety.

New Year's Day finds Mutual with the exclusive broadcast of the Gator Bowl game from Jacksonville, Florida. Local sports fans might be especially interested in this game at half time. A certain very well known former announcer at WNAE, one Wiles Hallock, is the publicity director for the sports department at the University of Wyoming and there is always the possibility that he might be one of the lads to do a little talking at half time. This is just a guess and it may be all wrong, but it could be. Incidentally, there is a pre-game preview of the Gator Bowl game on Sunday night at 10:00 on WNAE-FM.

Sunday night being New Year's Eve, WNAE-FM will stay on an extra hour to see that the New Year is welcomed properly. Starting at 10:30, Mutual and WNAE-FM has an excellent program of top bands on the schedule. Saccas Orchestra at 10:30, Miguelito Valdez at 10:45, Year's End News at 11:00, Vincent Lopez at 11:15, 11:30 Emil Coleman, Ralph Flanagan at 11:45 with a New Year's Welcome from Times Square at 12:00 midnight. Guy Lombardo concludes the evening's broadcast at 12:03 to 12:15. Mutual will keep on going until 4:00. WNAE-FM will not stick around that long. If you're having a party on New Year's Eve, or just staying at home with the family, let WNAE-FM be your entertainment companion to see in the New Year.

Monday, January 1st sees a lengthening of the broadcasting hours on WNAE again. Sign off time in January is 5:15. The evening news and sports shows will be heard one-half hour later than during December.

The beginning of a new year means the beginning of WNAE's fifth year in Warren. Sunday is our anniversary. We've a little commemorative program at 3:15 on that afternoon. In just a few lines in this weekly column, I'd like to again say "Thank you" to all of our many friends in Warren and Warren county as well as our listeners in other counties in the area. Those of us at WNAE who moved to Warren four years ago as total strangers are deeply grateful to our friends and neighbors in this area who not only have made us feel at home but accepted us as an integral part of the community. As we've said before, we who own and operate WNAE and WNAE-FM feel that Warren is "home" to us. We like it here and expect to be here a long time. With the continued support and cooperation of both our listeners and our sponsors we shall do our very best to make WNAE and WNAE-FM an every day part of the life of Warren. Thanks to you all... and a very happy New Year.

LeRoy Schneck.

Year-End Football Broadcasts to Start Saturday Afternoon

New York, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Year-end bowl football gets under way in the south and on the west coast Saturday, with MBS-radio broadcasting both games. The west coast event will have a regional telecast in addition.

The schedule: MBS 2:45 p. m. Blue-Gray college All-Stars at Cramton Bowl, Montgomery, Ala.; announcers Harry Wismer and Jim Britt.

MBS 5 (approximately) East-West college All-Stars at Kezar Stadium, San Francisco; Al Helfer and Mel Venter. (Regional telecast to KGO-TV San Francisco, KTLA Los Angeles and KFMB-TV at San Diego.)

Also in the way of Saturday sports, these items are listed on radio and TV: Bowl previews on radio—NBC 5 p. m. Variety Club Cotton Bowl show from Dallas with Herman Hickman and John Boles as MCs; CBS, 6:30, Red Barber and Mel Allen previewing the Rose and Orange Bowls respectively.

Eight and Forty Salon Membership Is Entertained at Christmas Meet-Party

Warren County Salon 405, Eight and Forty, the honor organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, enjoyed a delightful dinner party at the Bide-A-Wee Inn, after which the group assembled at the "Eight and Forty" for a business session and pleasant social evening.

The president, Miss Eva Brown, of Sheffield, presented the calendar of obligations to the department, the membership responding by voting substantial contributions to the Tuberculosis Fund, Child Welfare Fund and instead of exchanging personal gifts, money gifts to the treasury earmarked for the department president's project, which is to make a fluoroscope available at the Malvern Branch of Philadelphia Rush Hospital. The members also voted to provide filled nut cups for the patients of Malvern Hospital on Easter Sunday.

The child welfare chairman, Mrs. Milton Witz, reported the salon's "adopted" child improved and discharged from Malvern Hospital and a second child "adopted" in early December, to whom Christmas gifts were sent in time for the hospital Christmas party. Ways and means chairman, Mrs. Sam Loomis, had available a full line of kitchen plastics for sale, the profits to replenish the general treasury. The membership voted to conduct a miscellaneous auction at the next regular meeting which will be held in Youngsville.

Christmas greetings were read from the department officers and chairmen who are serving the Eight and Forty this year.

Mrs. Charles Cannon entertained by reading a number of interesting Christmas legends and unusual customs followed by peoples of other nations. Games were enjoyed and the social hour closed with light refreshments served from a beautifully appointed table.

In addition to those previously mentioned members attending were Mrs. Effie Spiedel, Mrs. Marvin Wilkins, Mrs. Merle Graham, Mrs. Orabelle Shick, Mrs. Richard Hildum, Mrs. Howard Norris, Mrs. Ella Wallace, Mrs. Hazel Patchen, Mrs. Theodore Fox, Mrs. Clara Driscoll and Mrs. Ralph A'Harrish.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Bauer, Warren-Jamestown road, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie Jean, to Frank R. Lucia, son of Mrs. Clara Lucia, 308 Morrison street, Warren. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mata Hari's real name was Margaretha Geertruida Zelle.

HOLIDAY WEDDING—Martha Jane Winans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Winans, 104 Buchanan street, and James Collard, son of Mrs. Helen Collard, 19 Claremont avenue, Buffalo, N. Y. were united in marriage at 2 p. m. Thursday, December 28, in the chapel of First Methodist church, Dr. Arthur Colley reading the service in the presence of the immediate families.

Attired in a Glen plaid suit, with white orchid corsage, the bride had as her only attendant, Betsy Conaway, wearing a red gabardine suit and white roses.

Fred Ronson, Catskill, N. Y., served Mr. Collard as best man. The reception followed at the bride's home.

Mrs. Collard will be graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University the end of January. Mr. Collard, who served three and one-half years in the Army Air Force, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan and is doing post-graduate work at the University of Buffalo.

NEW RECORD FOR GIRL SCOUT SALES

Girl Scouts and Brownies of Warren county have a new record to add to their list of achievements. This year, for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, they sold over 3,700 pounds of mixed nuts. This is over half again as many as were sold last year. The proceeds from the sale go toward the support of Camp Birdsall Edey, and each troop received a commission for every pound sold.

The Girl Scout office, at the Community Service Building on Market street, has available more nuts for those who haven't a sufficient supply on hand for over the New Year weekend. These may be obtained by calling 1895. There is also a supply of nuts for sale at the Blue and White Restaurant and at the Village Kitchen.

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICE IS CHANGED

The Monday evening service in the Youngsville Week of Prayer series has been changed from Pittsfield Wesleyan Methodist church to the Evangelical United Brethren church at the same place. It is announced today. The pastor, Rev. Wayne Rothwell, will be the speaker.

The Civil War was followed by inflation. Still steak only cost .15 a pound; ham, .18; a dozen eggs .22; and a quart of milk, .08.

Youngsville, Dec. 29—Brokenstraw Garden Club members will hold their January meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Borton, East Main street, with Mrs. Rapp as co-hostess. The topic will be "Wild Life in the Winter."

GRANGE IS CHANGED

Due to the New Year's holiday on Monday, Warren Grange No. 1025 has rescheduled its January meeting for Tuesday evening, January 2, at eight o'clock. The building association will submit its annual report during the business session.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Peterson, Youngsville, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Esther Lena, to Charles B. Denardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Denardi, 306 Morrison street, Warren. No date has been set for the wedding.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith and children, Ronald and Gretchen, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rossey, Erie, are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoskins, Water street.

Sgt. Kenneth Grosch, who is stationed at Enid, Okla., is home to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Grosch, Kinzua road.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dalton, Schenectady, N. Y., spent the holiday weekend here with the latter's mother, Mrs. George H. Miller, Rogers Mills. Mrs. Dalton remained for a couple of weeks' visit.

All Young People Invited To Dance

Tomorrow night marks the date of the big holiday event, the Crystal Mist, when the Phi Zeta Chi Sub-Deb Club and the Phalanx Fraternity present Emme Emerson and his orchestra from nine until one at the Marconi Outing Club. The dance is an informal affair and welcomes all young people. Tickets can be purchased in advance from the members of the sponsoring organizations and will be on sale at the door.

Decoration committee members have worked out a color scheme appropriate for the name given the gala attraction and claim it will be like dancing under the stars. So don't miss this promising event, the last before vacation time ends.

HOLIDAY BETROTHAL

Mrs. Grace T. Higgins, 4 Second avenue, announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Jean MacLaren, to Robert S. Gibb, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gibb, 14 Crescent Park. Miss MacLaren is a graduate of Warren High School, attended Finch Junior College, New York City, and was graduated from Harcum Junior College, Bryn Mawr, in 1950.

Mr. Gibb is also a graduate of Warren High School and Mercersburg Academy, and is attending college at Williamsport. The wedding will take place in June.

DIAMOND GRANGE

Diamond Grange at Tiona will hold its regular meeting at eight o'clock Tuesday evening and a large turnout is hoped for.

MARIAN DANIELSON PLANS OPEN CHURCH

Marian Danielson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Danielson, of Pittsfield, has planned an open church ceremony Saturday for her marriage Saturday to Donald Aberg, son of Mrs. Rose Aberg, Youngsville, and Stuart Aberg, Warren.

The ceremony will be performed at seven o'clock in the evening in the Pittsfield Evangelical United Brethren church.

Nancy E. Odell Is Wednesday Bride Of Robert Blume

Miss Nancy E. Odell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Newton Odell, and Pvt. Robert W. Blume, son of Mrs. Sarah Blume, Clarendon, and E. W. Blume, Weldbank, were united in marriage in the home of the bride, 11 Giant street, at 8 p. m. Wednesday, December 27. The single ring ceremony was read by candlelight before the fireplace, the Rev. William W. Blume, Sheridan, N. Y., brother of the bridegroom, officiating.

Mr. Odell gave his daughter in marriage and attendants were Miss Maryann Odell, sister of the bride, and Jack Bliss, Clarendon.

The bride was attired in a two piece frock of gray faille, with rhinestone trim, and had black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Her maid of honor was in aqua, with black accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Odell chose a green dress and Mrs. Blume was in red, each with black accessories.

The reception followed immediately in the Odell home, with Miss Mary Blume cutting the wedding cake and Miss Shirley Peterson in charge of the guest book.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will be in Warren until Sunday, December 31, when Pvt. Blume will leave for Keesler Field for further training in the U. S. Air Force.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Rev. and Mrs. William Blume, Sheridan, N. Y.; Charles Odell and Gene Jordano, Erie.

GARLAND PROGRAM

Garland, Dec. 29—The Presbyterian Sunday school held its annual Christmas service in the church, with a good turnout to enjoy program numbers and with Audrey Smith at the piano for the carol singing.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB

The Lucy Neighborhood Girl Scout Club will meet next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Mathyer, Marner street, and all members are asked to be on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lucia and son, David, have returned to their home in Cambridge Springs, after spending Christmas with relatives in Warren.

Sugar Grove School Has Holiday Program

Sugar Grove, Dec. 29—The school auditorium was filled to capacity for the Christmas program presented by the Sugar Grove-Farmington Joint School, with Mrs. Ruth Titchner as director and Shirley Sherrard as accompanist.

The program was presented in two parts, the first, a reminder of the fun and holiday spirit of Christmas, including the following numbers:

Orchestra numbers—Jingle Bells, medley by Simpson, and The Children's Christmas, Zamecnik; sextet, Geraldine Brown, Mary Lou Hoy, Joan Johnson, Marguerite Stohlberg, Eleanor Brown and Catherine McClure, singing Santa Claus Is Coming To Town; solo—I Yust Go Nuts at Christmas, Doyle Carlson, with guitar accompaniment; reading—The Night Before Christmas, Janet Burgett; girl's chorus—Deck the Halls, Welsh air, and Frosty the Snowman; sextet—Winter Wonderland by Bernard; girls' chorus—White Christmas, Berlin.

The second part of the program presented sincere reverence in commemoration of the birth of the Christ Child 1950 years ago and opened with the orchestra playing At Christmas Tide by Herfurth. The girls' chorus of the seventh and eighth grades sang The Christmas Bells, Lafabure-Wiley, and the girls' chorus of the 11th and 12th grades sang two numbers, O Little Town of Bethlehem and Bring a Torch. The girls' sextet sang Infant So Mild. Closing numbers were Hark, the Herald Angels Sing by the senior girls' chorus, and three numbers by the choir: Angels We Have Heard on High, O Holy Night and Silent Night, with Larry Slagle singing the solo part.

Roy Nelson and Jim Mesler were stage managers, while Katherine McClure was in charge of the beautiful stage setting.

city. . . The birthday column today carries a long list of folks in the community who will be cutting cakes Monday with the New Year.

. . . Down at DuBois the kids are not taking advantage of the four coasting streets provided for their holiday recreation like city authorities expected; instead they are resorting to the use of snowballs for much of their recreation and the police don't like it. . . too many lights are being broken and other damage is being done. . .

Greetings to the folks up at WNAE on their fourth anniversary of service to the listening audience of Warren and vicinity; and this is a good place to repeat again what we have said before, that we enjoy and appreciate the wonderful cooperation and wholehearted good fellowship that exists between members of the staffs of this paper and the Radio station. . . And speaking of anniversaries, we are reminded that it will be 25 years, Monday, January first, when this writer first took over as corner of Warren county. . . The Medical Society of Pennsylvania, for the fourth year, will present testimonial plaques to all residents of the state who will attain their one-hundredth birthday during the year 1951, and presentation of each plaque will be made by officers of the Medical Society of the county where the centenarian resides. . . The ringing of the New Years Bells and blowing of whistles will echo our heartfelt wishes for your all-year enjoyment and good cheer!

Here's the Hubby's Manual
On Being Easy to Live With

SINCE a recent column outlined the qualities that make a woman easy to get along with, a number of women readers—some of them in an embattled mood—have demanded a column on "how to be easy to live with" aimed directly at husbands. This, they feel, would even the score.

Well, here goes. This is exclusively for husbands and, judging from the letters from some of your wives, you need these hints.

ONE. Share the doings of the day with your wife. Don't clam up as soon as you get home in the evening. The "strong silent type," with emphasis on the "silent," is a bore to live with.

TWO. Have enough common courtesy to let your wife know if you are going to be late to dinner. Nothing annoys a woman more than to get a meal ready to serve and then have to sit and wait because the man of the family hasn't bothered to say he'll be an hour later than usual.

PICK 'EM UP

THREE. Be neat. No woman likes to feel like a servant—and that's the way she feels if she has to pick up after you constantly.

FOUR. Show some appreciation for the things your wife does for your comfort. And go easy on the criticism. Praise gets better and quicker results than fault-finding.

FIVE. Don't be a stay-at-home stick-in-the-mud. Most wives like some social life, but it isn't much fun if they have to drag their husbands along.

SIX. Work out some kind of financial arrangement so that your wife doesn't have to ask you for every cent she spends. That may make you feel big and important—but it's hard on her dignity.

SEVEN. Tell her once in a while that you couldn't get along without her. And that will make her easier to live with, too. For the woman doesn't exist who doesn't need to feel necessary to her husband.

1950 PICTORIAL HIGHLIGHTS IN WARREN AND VICINITY

URNS BUSINESS OVER TO SON—Newton A. McCausland, prominent Warren druggist for many years, announced his retirement and turned his business, the Warren Drug Store, 233 Liberty street, over to his son, William McCausland.

FEDERALIZED—Warren's Company I of the Pennsylvania National Guard was called to active duty, and sent to Camp Atterbury, Ind., for training as tension mounted in the Korean War situation.

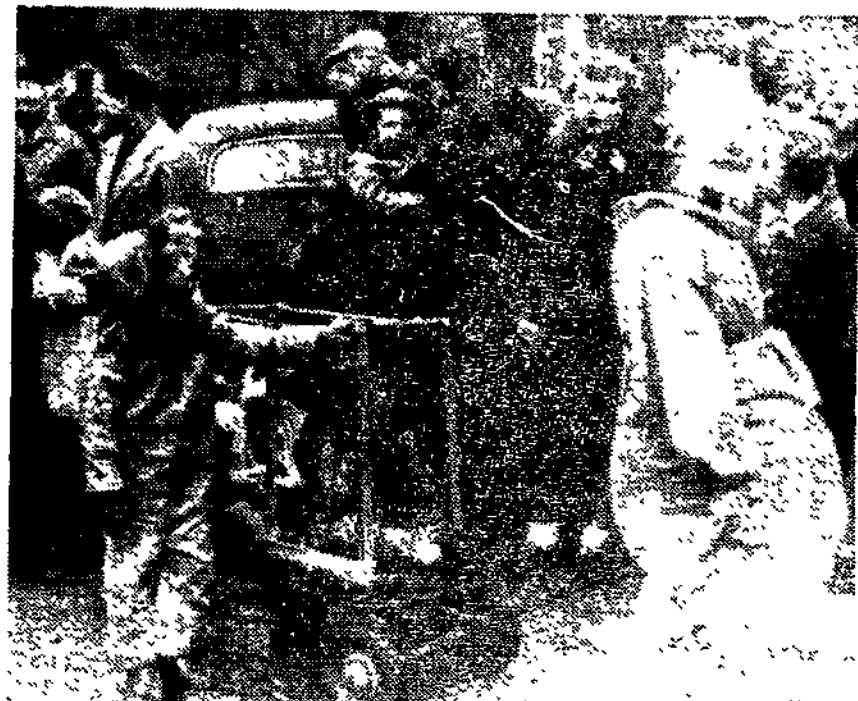

PRESENTED AWARD—Dr. J. E. Thompson, (left), Youngsville, president of Warren County Medical Society presents Benjamin Rush Award to Homer Mohr, Warren printer, in recognition of his outstanding service as director for 25 years in Warren County Tuberculosis Society.

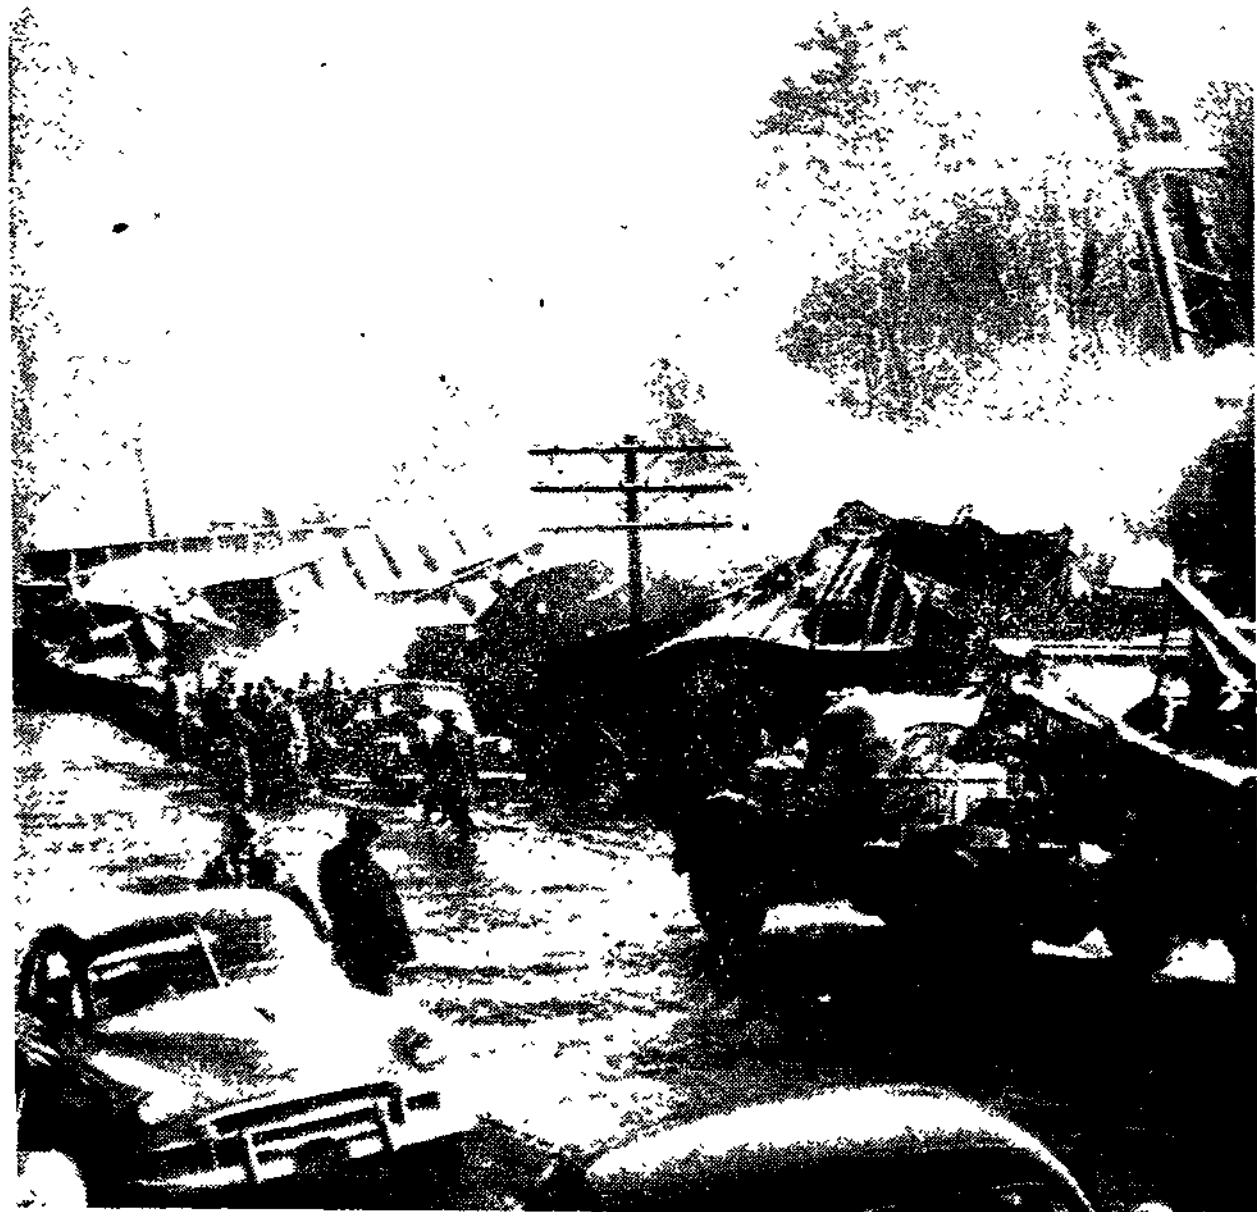

FATAL CRASH—The driver of this car was killed instantly when it crashed head-on into a tree along the Warren-Jamestown road, near the Conewango Valley Country Club. Death toll from traffic accidents in Warren county in 1950 was seven.

GROUND-BREAKING CEREMONY—Miss Fannie Smith, only surviving member of the first board of trustees of Warren General Hospital, turns the first spadeful of dirt at groundbreaking ceremonies for the new hospital building, now under construction.

MUMMERS PARADE—Here is one of the many entries in the Halloween parade, sponsored annually by the North Warren Civic Club.

SPILLED CARGO—General view of the wreckage of an iron ore train which jumped the tracks on the Pennsylvania Railroad line near the Deerhead Inn. Another serious iron ore train smashup also occurred on the Pennsy lines near Pittsfield.

TWISTED GIRDER—A twisted girder, one of main supports of Fifth avenue bridge spanning Conewango Creek, forced closing of the span to traffic for many weeks until major repairs could be made.

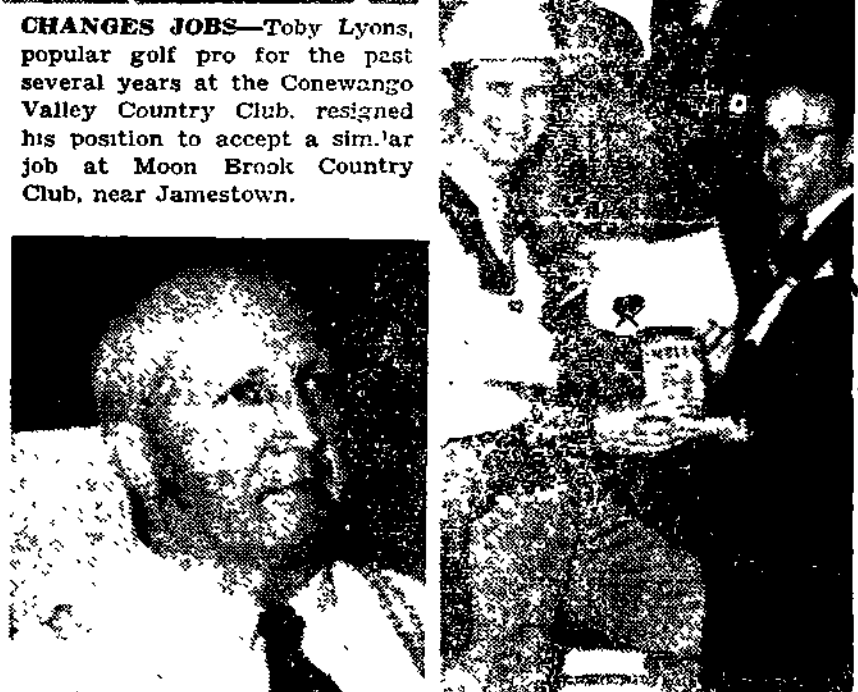

NARROW ESCAPE—The driver of this car had a narrow escape from death. The machine was struck by a train on the south side crossing near Seneca Lumber and pushed to the edge of the river bank. Area residents have petitioned the PUC to direct the Pennsylvania Railroad to install flashing warning lights at the crossing.

VISITOR FROM THE NORTH—Santa Claus made his annual visit to Warren and participated in ceremonies held to turn on the many strings of colored lights used to decorate the business section for the Yuletide.

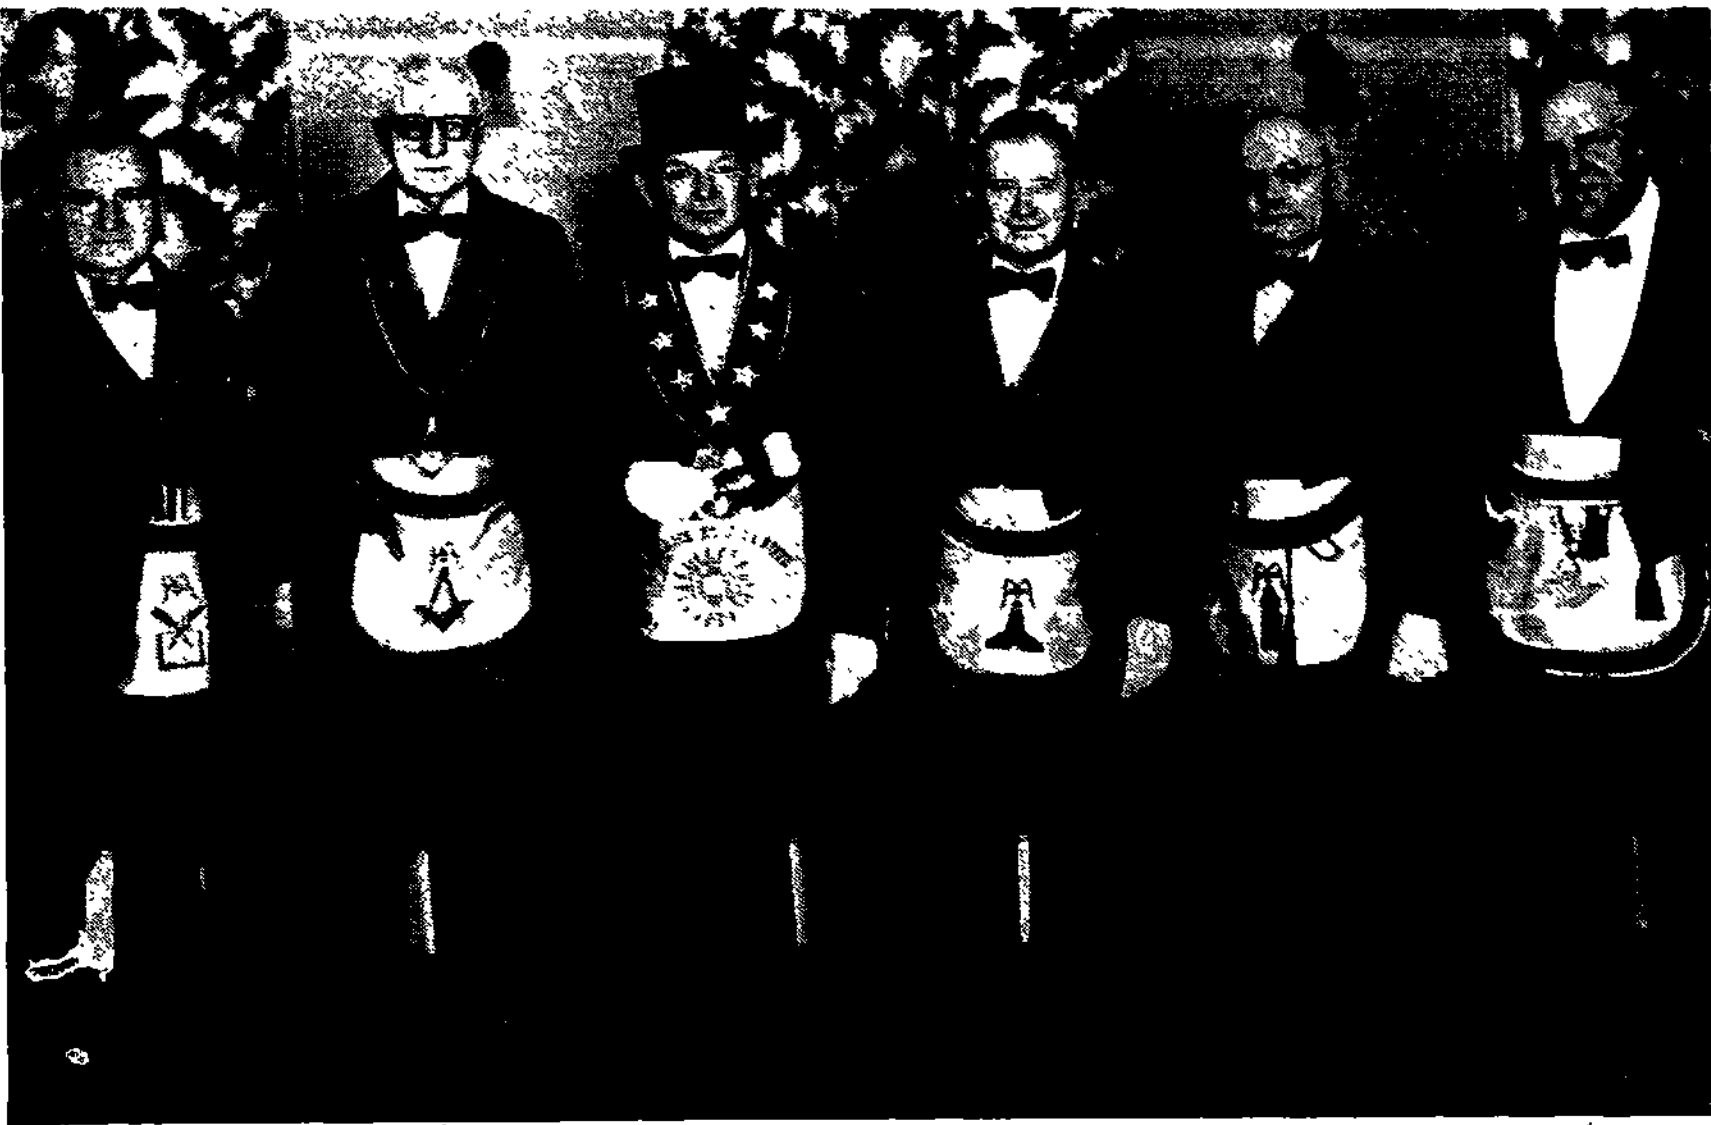

CANE MAN—Harry Shawkey, well-known Warren man, who makes canes and sells them in a one-man campaign to raise funds for the Shrine's Zorn Zorn Hospital for Crippled Children in Erie.

CHANGES JOBS—Toby Lyons, popular golf pro for the past several years at the Conewango Valley Country Club, resigned his position to accept a similar job at Moon Brook Country Club, near Jamestown.

VETERAN RETIRES—John Cole, 11 Elm street, veteran carrier at the Warren post office, retired.

BIG YEAR FOR GRAND MASTER: W. E. Yeager, (third from left), was installed grand master of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Pennsylvania, in December, 1949. During his busy year he made official visitations, with his grand lodge officers, to both Joseph Warren Lodge No. 276, and North Star Lodge No. 241 F. & A. M. The above photo was taken during the meeting and banquet held in connection with the 100th anniversary of the founding of North Star Lodge, commemorated with special programs each month during the year.

MARKS ANNIVERSARY:—The Times Publishing Co., publishers of the Times-Mirror, issued a special anniversary edition in observance of its 50th birthday on August 13, 1950.

ZONING:—Here is one of the crowds which attended the many public hearings held in county courthouse on revisions of borough's zoning ordinance.

DRAFT CONTINGENT:—One of the contingents of the Warren County men called up for military service following re-activation of the Selective Service Program to meet manpower needs stemming from the war in Korea.

VETERAN LAWMAKER:—Dr. L. E. Chapman, Warren, was re-elected to his sixth consecutive term as State Senator from Warren and Venango counties. The County Medical Society also tendered him a testimonial dinner in honor of his being elected a vice president in the State Medical Society.

JAMBOREE TROOP:—Members of the Warren County Troop which attended the National Boy Scout jamboree at Valley Forge received a cookie treat from the Girl Scouts.

NOMINATED:—L. Mike Evan, veteran Warren police officer, has been nominated for the post of police chief of the borough, which was vacated when Chief George Haehn retired.

HUNTING:—Heavy snows and miserable weather kept many hunters out of the woods for the two-day doe season and the regular buck season, resulting in an exceptionally light deer kill. This Union City hunter got his buck near Dew Drop bridge.

MUSICIAN HONORED:—Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell, head of the Warren Conservatory of Music, was presented plaque for outstanding service by the American Piano Teachers Association.

NEW INDUSTRY:—Directors of the Warren Industrial and Development Corporation confer withsylvania officials concerning plans for a new plastics plant which WIDC is building for Sylvania on the old Russell Athletic Field on the East Side.

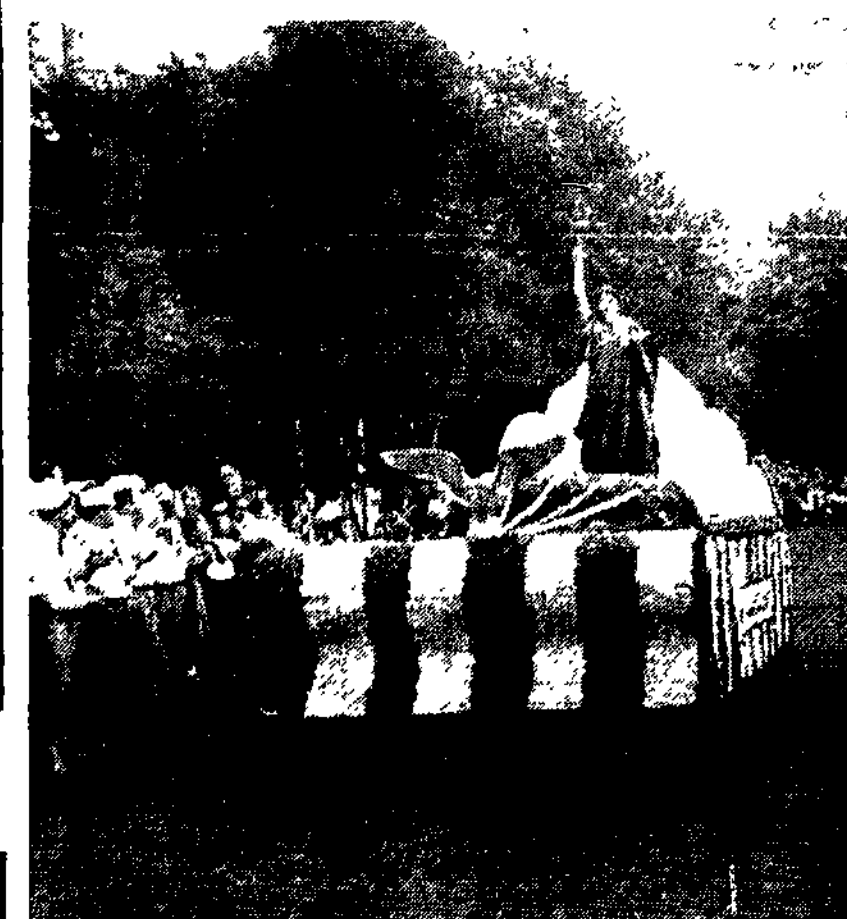

FUTURE MAJOR LEAGUERS:—This is the Spouts team which won the Midget League championship in the Warren Hot Stove League. The baseball program for kids had an enrollment of 700 boys and 44 teams for its second season.

BLOOD PROGRAM:—First shipment of blood, obtained during visit of Red Cross Mobile Blood unit to Warren, is delivered to Warren General Hospital to help in a blood bank at that institution for community needs.

CHEMICAL PLANT FIRE:—Most serious fire to hit the community was the blaze which destroyed the Nu-Guard Chemical plant on the East Side. Two barns at North Warren and one at Rouse Hospital, Youngville, also were among the other major fires.

BIG PARADE:—The community's Fourth of July Parade, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Citizens Committee, was the biggest ever.

LIBERTY BELL REPLICA:—A full-sized replica of the Liberty Bell was exhibited in Warren to promote sale of U. S. Savings Bonds.

AIR TRAGEDY:—A Canadian visitor was killed and a Warren man seriously hurt when this light plane crashed into the side of hill near Irvinedale school.

FAREWELL '50—Eventful Year Passes in Review

JANUARY

1—The new year began uneventfully with newspapers everywhere headlining local events. Men hoped it was a portent, prophesied a peaceful 1950. However, the march of international communism in Korea, Tibet, Indo-China and elsewhere shattered that illusion as 1950 ran its course.

2—Former President Hoover and Senator Taft urge U.S. to protect Formosa.

4—In State of Union message, Truman relates Fair Deal program on domestic issues, sees nation's fiscal situation improving, comes out for moderate revenue increase. Famed newspaper New York Sun, founded in 1833, bought by and merged with New York World-Telegram.

5—Truman bars any form of military aid or intervention in Formosa.

6—In annual economic report to Congress, Truman visions annual output of $300 billion and 64 million jobs in five years; Britain records Red China de jure recognition.

UPS AND DOWNS OF LIFE IN 1950

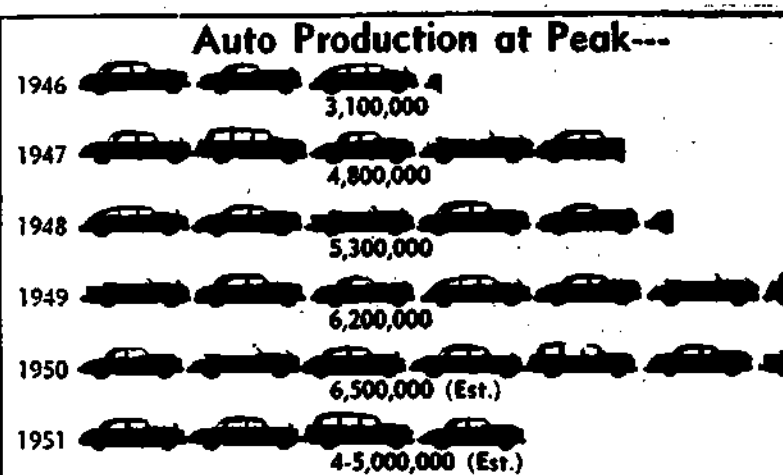

American women continue to outlast the so-called "rugged" male sex, according to the U. S. Public Health Service. The Newschart above shows that while annual death rates for both men and women decreased in 1950, the women's rate is going down faster. Estimated 1950 figure for women is 8.3 per 1000, and for men 11.2.

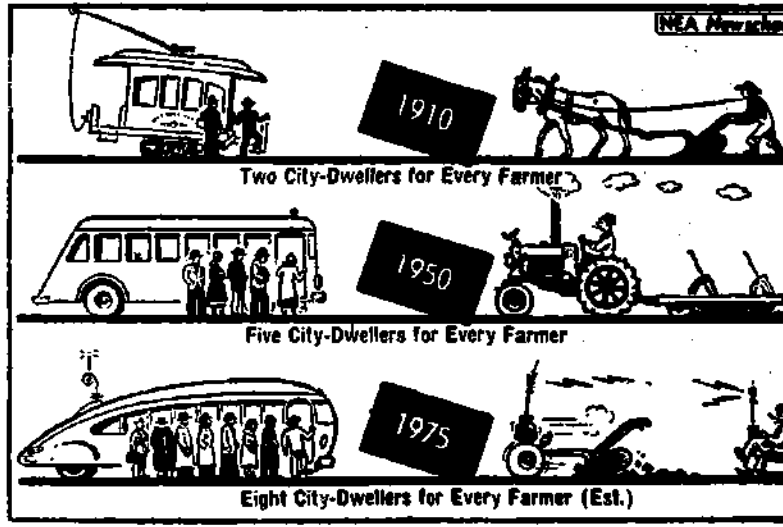

Because of taxes and inflation, you had to earn a lot more in 1950 to be able to buy as much as you did in 1940. The Newschart above, based on data from the National Industrial Conference Board, shows how much a family man with two children, in each of three brackets, had to earn in 1950 to keep pace with his 1940 income.

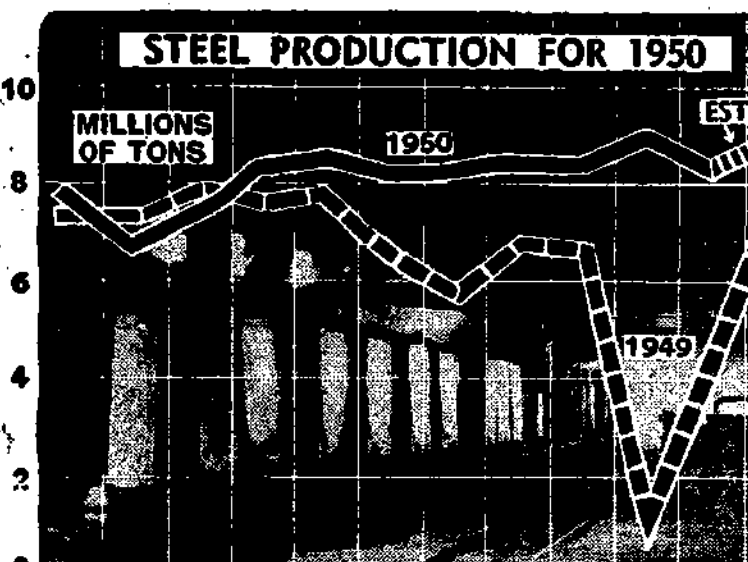

MORE HOME OWNERS—Newschart above, based on figures from the publication "Savings and Home Ownership," indicates that in 1950 we were rapidly becoming a nation of home owners instead of renters—until the national emergency threw a roadblock in the way. Most of the five and a half million new single-family dwellings started since Jan. 1, 1940, were purchased by families for their own occupancy.

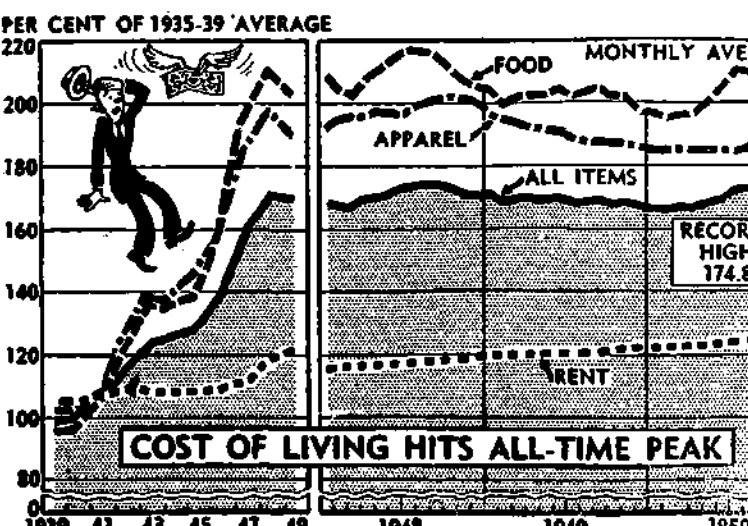

U. S. auto, truck and bus production, on the rise since World War II ended, is expected to drop off sharply in 1951 as a result of the new rearmament program. How much it will fall from this year's record 6,500,000 units is anybody's guess. Some experts predict "somewhere between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000," but impact of war mobilization on the industry will call the turn.

THE VANISHING FARMER—Latest Agriculture Department statistics indicate you just can't keep 'em down on the farm. Newschart, above, illustrates the long-range trend, spurred by improved farming techniques and machinery. With these, fewer farm workers are required to feed the nation. At present, about 27 million Americans, or 18 per cent of the population, live on farms, compared with 32 million in 1910.

Newschart, above—based on American Iron and Steel Institute figures—gives tonnage of steel for ingots and castings poured during 1950 on a monthly basis. Chart also compares the record year with 1949 when coal and steel strikes in the last quarter sharply reduced output. Big snowstorm late in November, 1950, caused loss in production of about 450 million tons. Thus 1950 output is expected to be 96.5 million tons, still an all-time record, instead of the 97 million tons previously figured on.

John Q. Public was hit harder than ever by inflation in 1950, as a study of the Department of Labor's price index above shows. In October the index hit an all-time high of 174.8—having passed the previous peak of September, 1948—and kept climbing. Best guess for the immediate future is for more inflation.

WPL REPORTING

The year ends the half-century, having produced little that was noteworthy in the book except for a few surprises. For instance, there's just no escaping the fact that the long-awaited Hemingway novel was not much more than the tired snarl of an old lion. And the amazing feat of William Faulkner in winning the Nobel Prize for Literature substantiated the approval of his few admirers and won him many more, proving mostly that nothing succeeds like success.

The illumination on the late Autumn horizon was the brilliant work of Christopher Fry, which has won kinder words from the critics than that of most recent playwrights.

All of these authors are represented in the collection at the Warren Public Library. Here are a few more recent books, picked at random:

A FEARFUL JOY, by Joyce Cary—This is another of those odd Cary romances, with a charm-than ten theories which some of the unsatisfied public have advanced with regard to the case.

THE GREAT AUDIENCE, by Gilbert Seldes—Mr. Seldes rolls up his sleeves and aims his punches at the movies, radio and television.

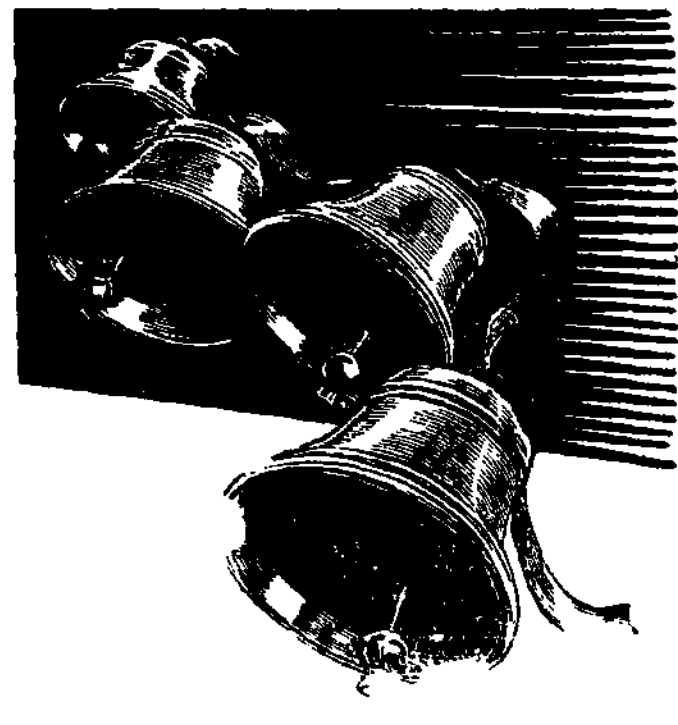

He finds that they are aimed to amuse only the adolescent and emotionally immature. However, he is nice enough to consider these types as the minority of the American public.

Unless automobile tires are changed systematically, the right rear one is the first to show signs of wear.

Weekend Services For St. Paul's Lutheran

Following 9:30 a. m. Sunday school and Bible classes, St. Paul's Lutheran church will have Holy Communion and reception of members in connection with the 10:30 a. m. service of worship.

The senior choir, under the direction of Harvey Horn, will sing "Communion Hymn" by Sibelius, and Mrs. Emil Jacobson at the organ will use the following music: Prelude—"Prelude" by Bach; Offertory—"La Chanson" by Hoffman; Postlude—"Postlude in D Minor" by Hoerner.

At 9 p. m., the New Year's Wake service will be sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood, with Elmar Roos as chairman. This service will begin with a motion picture entitled "Second Chance". This is a dramatic film, Hollywood made, based on an original Faith Baldwin story about Ed and Emily Dean, so typical a young couple you'll relive your own life watching theirs. In the film Emily Dean wishes desperately for a second chance, for more time to redirect her life. Seeing it will remind you of your daily second chance—to make your life count for Christ. Following this picture there will be refreshments and a worship service at the midnight hour. The entire family is invited and urged to attend this service.

Christians Facing a New Year

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

THE fact that a Sunday intervenes between Christmas Day and the beginning of the New Year is always of interest and significance.

If everything in religion and history had worked out with the mathematical exactness and certainty that many matter-of-fact people dole upon, there would be no intervening Sunday, nor two days to celebrate, for Christmas Day and New Year's Day would be the same day. This is obvious, for ostensibly we date our years from the birth of Christ, and it is that birth that we celebrate on Christmas Day.

It is a deep reminder to us, or ought to be, that the deep realities of religion and life are not bound up with exactness and mathematical certainty, but consist in essential truth and spiritual values. To know the Christ, to feel the power of His love, and to love Him as He has loved us, has little to do with exact knowledge of the year, or day, in which He was born.

One might almost suppose that a wise Providence had left some things inexact so that all the emphasis might be on the deep important realities of spiritual truth and values. Yet, it is sad to realize how much these are neglected for relatively unimportant matters of uncertainty and speculation.

However this may be, there is value in that Sunday that intervenes between Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Here is time for reflection upon the great event celebrated at Christmas; sometimes, unfortunately, with more of pagan exuberance than of real joy and devotion in the coming of the Savior. It provides time for thought and introspection, for bringing Christian facts and values into the preparation of mind and heart as one enters upon a new year.

It is, of course, not actually a new year upon which one enters, but only upon the opening day of a new year. The truly Christian life is a day-by-day matter. Jesus emphasized this in the prayer He taught His disciples, "Give us this day our daily bread."

That prayer led the soul into great heights and depths, and sublime, far-off goals, "Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth as it is done in heaven"; but it was evidently intended for a daily prayer, not only in quest of bread, but bringing all the supreme range of God's life toward man, and man's life toward God, into daily experience.

So, the New Year for the Christian takes its guidance and goal, its hopes and aspirations, its joys and enrichments, from the Christmas story of the coming of the Christ, and of all that the Gospel of His life, His teaching, His example, His guidance, and His divine leadership mean for mankind.

Far and wide the world has celebrated Christmas. What a world it would be, if that celebration meant an actual devotion to the Prince of Peace, dispelling the fears and distrust, the hatred and violence, by the power of the more abundant life! "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

To the many who have written me recently, and to others who read this column, I offer sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year—prosperous in all that pertains to life's best attainments and deepest satisfactions.

Student Service And Watch Night Program

Youngsville Evangelical United Brethren church, of which the Rev. Harold Lindquist is pastor, makes the following announcements for Sunday services:

At the 11 a. m. worship service, the choir will sing the anthem, "Morning Salutation" by Marshall, and the sermon theme to be used by the pastor will be "New Lives For Old". Junior church and the nursery meet at this same hour for the children.

The 7:30 p. m. friendship service will be a student recognition period for young people who are away at college, with special music and other features.

The 9:30 a. m. church school includes classes for all ages, including the nursery for the small children.

From 9 p. m. until midnight there will be a Watch Night Service, in charge of the Youth Fellowship. The program will include a time of inspiration, refreshments, a religious sound film, and will be concluded with a worship period from 11 until 12. A cordial invitation is extended to all in the community who are interested.

Also announced for next week, Monday through Friday, is the Week of Prayer to be observed with services in various churches of the community.

BETHLEHEM COVENANT CHURCH

"What Way From Christmas?" will be Pastor David Carlson's sermon subject for the 11 a. m. Sunday worship service at Bethlehem Covenant church. A New Year's Wake Service will be held at 11 p. m., with special music and a message on the subject: "God's Tomorrow." Sunday school will meet at the usual hour of 10 a. m. YOUTH FOR CHRIST COLLEGE NIGHT

Warren Youth for Christ cordially invites the public to attend its "College Night" meeting to be held in Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church at 7:45 p. m. Saturday.

There will be an interesting program, including special music and singing by young people home from college and the speaker will be Jud Hetrick, well known local boy who is attending Bob Jones University. Those planning to attend are urged to come early.

EPISCOPAL MISSIONS

The Rev. William A. Chamberlain, Jr., vicar of Warren county Episcopal missions, makes the following announcements for week-end services: St. Luke's at Kinzua—10 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon conducted by lay readers. St. Francis at Youngsville—10 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon.

Vicar Chamberlain also announces he will be out of town Monday and will not have the Holy Communion service which was previously announced.

New Year Services At First Baptist Church

The Passing of the old year and the welcoming in of the new will be observed at First Baptist church in both morning and evening services.

At the 11 o'clock hour of worship, the pastor will speak on the theme "Facing the New Year". The choir, under the direction of Miss Viola Landmark will sing "Holy Lord God" by Noble Cain. Mrs. Carl Whipple, organist will play for her prelude "Agnus Dei" by Bizet; offertory "Lento" by Skillman and "Postlude" by Rolfe.

The evening service will begin at nine o'clock, with a motion picture, "The Two Kingdoms", followed by a fellowship hour. At 11 o'clock there will be a worship service with the pastor speaking on the theme "Not New Resolutions But a New Heart". The choir will sing "A Song at Evening" by Holmstrom. This service will conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

The community is cordially invited to participate in these services.

The Sunday School will convene at 9:45, with the superintendent, Lyle Carr, presiding. The opening exercise will be conducted by Donald Owens.

CHRISTMAS EVENT

Barnes, Dec. 29—Members of the Adult Bible Class and WSCS of the Methodist church enjoyed their annual Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw.

About 20 members and a few invited guests enjoyed the turkey dinner served at one o'clock. Mrs. Harold Miller conducted the business session, when plans were made to entertain the WSCS of East Kane some time in January. Gifts were exchanged to conclude the party.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, funeral hours at Warren's funeral home are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

DR. CLAUDE W. JONES

Dr. Claude W. Jones, prominent Corry dentist, died unexpectedly Thursday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock following a short illness.

Dr. Jones was born in Chancellers Valley on January 6, 1885, and graduated from Warren High School and the Dental School of Western University of Pittsburgh, now the University of Pittsburgh.

He opened a dental practice in Warren and was here for two years before going to Mt. Jewett. He moved to Corry in 1923 and had resided in that city ever since.

He was a member of the Erie County Dental Society, the Pennsylvania Dental Association, the American Dental Association, and the Rotary Club of Corry.

Dr. Jones leaves his wife, Julia; three nephews, Judge Allison D. Wade and Emmons Wade of Warren, and Dr. Everett Jones, Lakewood, N. Y.; and two nieces, Mrs. J. C. Walters, Lakewood, and Mrs. Lucille Williams, Pottstown.

The body was removed to the Bracken and Keating funeral home in Corry, where services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Temporary interment will be made in the Pine Grove mausoleum at Corry.

FLORENCE ARLENE BRITT

Florence Arlene Britt, daughter of Mrs. Cecile Lindell, David street, Youngsville, and the late William J. Britt, died this morning at nine o'clock at Warren General Hospital, where she was admitted yesterday. Aged 19 years, she was a member of this year's senior class of Youngsville High School.

Besides her mother and stepfather, Monroe Lindell, she leaves the following brothers and sisters: William J. Britt, Mrs. Frances Day, Jamestown, N. Y.; Keith Britt, Warner Lindell, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Yvonne Britt, Youngsville; Mrs. Estelle Collins, Warren; Mrs. Robert Campbell, Ocala, Fla.; and Mrs. Frank Perchelli, Cadogan, Pa.

Removal has been made to the Young Funeral Home, Youngsville, where friends will be received from Saturday afternoon until noon Monday. Services will be held at Youngsville Free Methodist church at 2 p. m. Monday, Rev. D. E. Fye officiating and interment following in Youngsville cemetery.

REVERDY S. HAYWARD

Services in memory of Reverdy S. Hayward, of Russell, were held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Lutz-VerMyer Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Buck, pastor of Russell Methodist church, officiating. Interment followed in Pine Grove cemetery, Russell, with the following serving as bearers: Levi Learn, Arthur Fehlmann, Loyd Russell, Roy Marsh, Howard Ramsdell and Earl Ruland.

Those present from away were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayward, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Lorna Kent, Hamburg, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowers, Jamestown, N. Y.

Erie Soldiers Hurt In Blast At Camp

Camp Atterbury, Ind., Dec. 29—(AP)—Five 28th Division soldiers who were injured in the explosion of a shell were reported in "satisfactory" condition today by doctors at the Army hospital.

The five soldiers, all members of tank company, 112th Infantry regiment, were injured yesterday when a dud rocket-launcher shell exploded on the ground near them in the Camp Atterbury range area.

Most seriously hurt was Cpl. James F. Merry of Erie, who is closest to the blast. He is on the serious list at the Army hospital.

The other four soldiers, three from Erie, and one from New York City, were not seriously hurt, but were hospitalized. Their names were not disclosed.

Amputee's Mother Plans Extended Visit At Hospital

(From Page One)

"But he's feeling fine and rested today," Mrs. Heintz said.

Mrs. Smith, who arrived without a change of clothing, got in a lot of shopping yesterday—a coat, dress, underclothing, nightgown, robe and slippers.

Today Mrs. Smith arranged to complete her shopping—a hat, purse, shoes and boots. Mrs. Heintz has been accompanying her.

The wardrobe is the gift of the American Legion, which also provided the chartered plane that flew Mrs. Smith to Washington yesterday.

Mrs. Smith is staying in a Walter Reed guest house during her visit.

There were no tears when she and her son met yesterday. She said "hello Bob" and bent down and kissed him. He said "hi mom."

They smiled at each other. He asked about home and about his mother's airplane flight to Washington to see him. She admired a television set which someone had sent anonymously to his hospital room.

It was the first time they had been together since Robert left last August for the Far East.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 28—(AP)—Army doctors are using all their skill to save the frost-bitten blackened hands and feet of Pvt. Hubert E. Reeves.

The 19-year-old soldier was nearly frozen as he lay wounded in bitter cold north Korea. He was left for dead by Chinese Communists.

Physicians at Percy Jones Hospital know they may have to amputate one or both hands and feet. Possibly penicillin injections will help the healing processes and make amputation unnecessary. Only time can tell, the doctors say.

Apparently Hubert also knows the chances he faces.

But, says his mother, "Hubert said if he lost his feet and hand he would give up that much to be out of Korea. It was that terrible."

Maurice D. Moffatt, Cleveland, O., is spending the holidays at the C. E. Francis home, 1105 Pennsylvania avenue east.

Warren Listed Among Counties Expected To Produce More Oil

Biggest oil producing year in Pennsylvania's history was 1891 when the wells spewed forth 31,424,000 barrels.

Lytle says McKean county probably will produce more oil in the future than any other Pennsylvania county. Arranged in order of probable production, the next nine counties are Venango, Butler, Warren, Washington, Allegheny, Clarion, Forest, Crawford and Armstrong.

"In Pennsylvania, fields which will ultimately produce over 25,000,000 barrels, Clarendon-Clinton, Butler Cross belt, Clarendon, Foster-Reno, Knox, McDonald, Oil City-Rouseville, Pleasantville, and Washington-Taylorstown."

led camouflaged vehicles in the forward areas.

MacArthur said the assault in the Yonpoo area began lightly, with U. N. troops dispersing 100 Reds in the initial attack. Later, a regiment of Communists was thrown at the Allied troops and ground was lost.

A briefing officer at U. S. Eighth Army headquarters said one Allied unit was thrown back 10 miles. Another battalion lost three miles.

Air observers reported mounting evidence of Chinese and North Korean forces moving up toward the battalions.

Eighth Army commander imposed tight restrictions on pin-pointing any units of his huge force at this time.

While the lid was screwed on a little tighter in Korea by the Allied command, the Red radio at Pyongyang broadcast that United Nations forces had suffered losses of men and war material in the Kangwon area on Dec. 24 and 25.

U. S. Far East Air Forces and Fifth Air Force fighters and bombers kept fighting at the Communists harboring the Red front.

Speedy jets knocked down one Russian-made MIG-15 and damaged two others in encounters in far northwest Korea, near Manchuria. All American planes returned safely to their bases.

Navy planes of Task Force 77 went back into action for the first time since the evacuation of the east coast port of Hungnam was completed on Christmas Eve. They destroyed 27 buildings occupied by Red troops and damaged 67 others along the 38th parallel.

One of the social events scheduled for the weekend is the Crystal Mist dance sponsored by the Phi Zeta Chi sub-club and Phalanx fraternity, to be held Saturday evening at the Marconi Outing club, nine to one. There will also be a New Year's Eve celebration at the club for members and guests only, Sunday night.

Elaborate preparations have been made by WNAE in collaboration with the Mutual Network, for feature programs over the week-end, concluding with a New Year's welcome from Times Square in New York at midnight Sunday.

INJURED IN FALL

Richard Jones, well known resident of North Warren, is a patient in the Warren General Hospital under treatment for injuries received in a fall at his home Thursday. X-rays failed to reveal any fractures according to reports. His son, Emmons Jones, of this city, sustained a fracture of one leg in a fall getting into his car at Fifth avenue and East street, last weekend, and is a patient in the Hamot hospital at Erie.

Investigations Give Police Busy Day

locked herself out of her apartment, called for assistance to re-enter. Police, as usual, obliged the lady.

The questioning of juveniles in connection with shoplifting and the theft of milk-bottle money widened yesterday as the day went on. Starting out with three boys picked up by Officers Park and Ristau on Wednesday, Acting Chief Mike Evan by questioning found that five others were implicated. The boys, 22 calendar shells and a variety of other small articles in addition to pilfering some milk bottles of money left for the route man. Police are getting the matter sifted out and questioning is continuing today.

Early this morning, officers were called to the Warren City Lines bus station where a Kane youth attempted robbery of money in the vending machine there. He had knocked the top off the machine. Police picked up two boys and took them to headquarters. One, identified as Richard Struffalino, 18, of Kane, was placed in the juvenile detention room in county jail when he admitted to officers that he attempted the robbery. Police will consult with District Attorney M. A. Kornreich today as to charges, if any.

Also under investigation is a morals matter involving a 15 year old youth and a group of younger boys.

Sullivan County Man President Of Educational Group

Harrisburg, Dec. 29—(AP)—A speech by governor-elect John S. Fine and installation of a new president highlighted today's closing session of the annual Pennsylvania state education association convention.

Whether Fine would make any reference to the association's move to obtain increased pay and pension benefits totaling $92,000,000 was a matter of speculation.

Slated to be installed as new president of the association was John M. Lumley, of Dushore, Sullivan county superintendent of schools.

According to voting statistics posted last night, Lumley defeated two other contenders for the presidency. The unsuccessful nominees were Robert E. Dawson, vice-principal of West Scranton high school and Paul S. Christman, Schuylkill Haven schools supervising principal.

The balloting results, posted on the Association's Convention bulletin board showed Lumley receiving 395 votes to 110 for Christman and 85 for Dawson.

Gov. James H. Duff told the Association last night that western Europe is one of America's "first lines of defense against Communism."

"Abandoning western Europe now," Duff added "would be going back on the background of law, ethics, morals and religion which has been the very cornerstone of America."

In endorsing military aid for western Europe, Duff took a different view than former President Herbert Hoover, who recently advocated a military withdrawal to the shores of this country.

Champion Liar Wanders Fair Field for Story Locale

Joseph Flynn of Cleveland, O., enough to give it honorable mention:

"One night," Flynn lied, "When I was firing on the railroad, we got orders to go into a sidetrack to let a passenger by. We had a long drag, including 65 carloads of canaries, and when we got the highball the engineer just couldn't get rolling—too much weight."

"I guess we would have been there yet if I hadn't solved the problem. Going back along the train I hung a lighted lantern in every one of those canary cars. The birds, thinking it was morning, flew off their perches. With the birds in the air we had enough weight off the wheels so that we could get going."

Volunteer Accepted By Co. Draft Board

Warren County Selective Service Board today announced it has received its first volunteer under new regulations permitting registrants to volunteer for induction without waiting for their number to be called.

The volunteer is Frank Joseph Shanshala, of 20 Locust street, Warren. He will leave with the county's draft contingent which will go to Erie Tuesday morning for induction into the armed forces. The group will leave the county courthouse at 7 a. m., and will make the trip by chartered bus.

THE MARKETS

New York, Dec. 29—(AP)—The stock market acted a little top heavy today after lunging ahead to a new 20-year high Thursday. In rapid-fire trading a clear majority of shares edged into the minus column. Losses were confined to less than $1 a share for the most part. Turnover was so fast that the ticker tape fell behind for a brief period in reporting transactions from the floor of the exchange. Profit taking operations were generally regarded as the main reason for the touch of weakness. On the whole, however, the selling was hardly absorbed. As was the case Wednesday and Thursday numerous transactions were for cash to establish tax gains or losses within 1950. A cash sale calls for immediate delivery of a security rather than the three days normally allowed.

Goes To Jail For Ignoring Order To Non-Support Case

Mike Hackman, Youngsville, appearing before Judge Allison J. Wade in December Quarter Sessions Court this morning, drew a fine of $25, was ordered to pay costs of prosecution and serve 15 days in jail for failure to comply with a court order on a non-support charge.

In the case of Donald P. Evans, Kane, charged with burglary and larceny in Sheffield recently, sentence was deferred for 60 days.

Also sentenced this morning was John S. Wisniewski, of Kane, charged with passing worthless checks and given a $1 fine, costs and 34 days in the county jail, was learned at the court house that defendants on like charges had been filed from several near counties and the Kane man would face further court action on the counts.

Wade Henry, Youngsville, charged with making threats against Evan Tuley, was placed under $50 bond to keep the peace for two years and ordered to pay the costs of prosecution. Bond in this case was provided by Opal and Cora Miles.

Several additional non-support cases and four juveniles were slated to come before the court in the afternoon's session.

Goes To Jail For Ignoring Order To Non-Support Case

Mike Hackman, Youngsville, appearing before Judge Allison J. Wade in December Quarter Sessions Court this morning, drew a fine of $25, was ordered to pay costs of prosecution and serve 15 days in jail for failure to comply with a court order on a non-support charge.

In the case of Donald P. Evans, Kane, charged with burglary and larceny in Sheffield recently, sentence was deferred for 60 days.

Also sentenced this morning was John S. Wisniewski, of Kane, charged with passing worthless checks and given a $1 fine, costs and 34 days in the county jail, was learned at the court house that defendants on like charges had been filed from several near counties and the Kane man would face further court action on the counts.

Wade Henry, Youngsville, charged with making threats against Evan Tuley, was placed under $50 bond to keep the peace for two years and ordered to pay the costs of prosecution. Bond in this case was provided by Opal and Cora Miles.

Several additional non-support cases and four juveniles were slated to come before the court in the afternoon's session.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

HERE IS HOW U. S. MADE BIGGEST LOSS

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service
It would be pleasant but not at all true to report that my teammates made a profit on every hand when they won the world's championship in Bermuda recently. The biggest loss came on the hand shown today.

When George Raape played the hand for America, he was pleased rather than disappointed with the opening lead. By playing the nine of spades from dummy he could surely pick up the jack of spades, which might otherwise have been a thorn in his flesh.

East played the jack of spades at the first trick, and South won with the ace. Now Raape could afford only one more round of trumps, because he had to do something about the hearts.

His plan was to establish the dummy rather than his own hand. Dummy's losing diamond could eventually be discarded on the queen of clubs (after the ace and king had been played). The only way to dispose of dummy's losing hearts was to ruff them in the South hand—for which South would need two trumps. Hence South could afford to draw only two rounds of trumps.

At the third trick Raape switched ed to hearts, casting the ace and then the king. His next step was to ruff a low heart with the four of spades—whereupon West overruffed. Raape had played the hand properly, but he was nevertheless defeated at his grand slam contract.

In the other room, the hand was played by a member of the European team (Sirar Thorfinnsson, of Iceland). Thorfinnsson actually held the North hand, but he played the grand slam contract because he was the first player to bid spades at that table.

In that room Charles H. Goren, of Philadelphia, had to make the opening lead from the East hand. It was a very difficult problem, and perhaps no lead would have done much good since the hand was played from the North position. Unfortunately Goren opened a heart, which gave North a free finesse and no further problem. Now declarer had only one losing heart to worry about, and he could afford to draw three rounds of trumps.

The difference between making the slam and losing it was 1560 points.

The cork tree is stripped of its valuable outer bark, always during the summer, at intervals of about eight or nine years.

HIGHLIGHTS on SPORTS

By LOU CARLSON

The First Forward Pass

In 1913 Knute Rockne and Gus Dorais introduced a new and spectacular football stunt in the game between Notre Dame and Army. It was the forward pass and Dorais passed to Knute so often that Notre Dame won a decisive victory over Army. It was enthusiastically written up in the sports headlines that day. Knute Rockne and Gus Dorais were credited with "inventing" the forward pass but actually Dr. Bradbury Robinson, playing at St. Louis University in 1906, originated the forward pass.

Before overhead play became legal in football in 1906, Doc Robinson realized the enormous advantage a player would have if he could perfect a long throw to his team mates. Doc and Clarence Kenney practiced until they perfected a form of throwing that worked. The opportunity to prove his theory came soon after, when Doc threw a perfect 87 yard pass in a game against the University of Kansas. His keen foresight gave football a new, faster and more exciting way of playing and today it is one of the most important forms of play depended upon to roll up winning scores.

Dessen Ran Out of MacPhail; He's Now Settling in Brooklyn

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Charles Walter Dessen leased an apartment in Brooklyn. This makes Chuck Dessen very unusual—a baseball manager living in the city where he manages.

So few managers have done this, as a matter of fact, that by now the practice practically amounts to an idiosyncrasy. The width of the continent from where their club's fans are isn't far enough for some of them.

Although the chunky one-time third baseman, Dessen, was born and raised in Decatur, Ill., he's a typical Flatbush guy. He'd prefer to reside across the bridges even if he were not employed there, many friends during the nine years he spent with New York clubs—seven with the Dodgers, two with the Yankees.

Attendance fell off rather alarmingly at Ebbets Field last season, and Walter Francis O'Malley launched a campaign to bring the game back to the incredible Brooklyn fans.

President O'Malley couldn't have taken a longer step in that direction than putting Dessen in complete charge right out there in full view in the third base coach's box.

DRESEN is a racing man, too. Branch Rickey thought he was paying too much attention to the races, or something. It was also reported that Dessen was being paid $10,000 as a coach. Anyway, Rickey let him go after the 1942 season and four years of service.

It could have been significant that Rickey hired Dessen back in July, 1943—at a reported $7500 a year.

Dessen has an idea he can settle down in Brooklyn now that he has run out of Larry MacPhail. He had quite a run with Loud Larry.

It was MacPhail who fetched him up from Nashville to manage the Reds in July, 1934. When in September, 1937, Cincinnati turned out to be not big enough to hold MacPhail and anybody else to speak of, Dessen departed with the Roaring Redhead.

Dessen would now be managing the Yankees had not MacPhail talked himself out and into a near $2,000,000. It was the genius' intention to put Bucky Harris in the front office, Dessen in command on the field.

But Dessen was going with MacPhail those days, and this trip sent him to Oakland without his highly-explosive sponsor.

Now he's back in Brooklyn, where he belongs.

Warren Dragons Close Out 1950 Tonight Against Alumni Squad

The Warren High School basketball squad will wind up the 1950 portion of its campaign tonight when it tangles with an Alumni squad at Beauty gym.

Game time will be 8:30 o'clock, with a preliminary scrap between the Junior and Sophomore cage squads slated for 7:15.

In seven games to date, the Dragons have won four and lost three.

The Alumni squad for tonight's clash will have a "player-coach" in George "Ace" Hesch, who starred for the Dragons last year and has kept his shooting eyes in good trim by playing with the league-leading Style Shop squad in the YMCA City League.

Other members of the Alumni team will include:

Harry Danielson, who is playing basketball at Indiana State Teachers College; Gail Bimber, who is attending the Penn State Forestry School at Mt. Alto; Don Baldensperger of the New Process squad in the Y circuit; Chuck Reese, who is attending Pitt, and Fran Griffin, now attending Edinboro State Teachers College.

Other scholastic games scheduled in the district tonight include:

Union City at Meadville, Alumni at Spartansburg, Erie Academy at Corry, Ellwood City at Bradford.

Sports Boosters Make Plans For Annual Lettermen's Dinner

Warren Sports Boosters are looking for a crowd of 250 sports fans to attend their annual mid-winter dinner on January 31 at the Marconi Outing Club when they will play host to lettermen and Seniors of Warren High School's football and basketball squads.

Tickets for this annual mid-winter frolic will go on sale over the weekend and will be handled by a committee the co-chairmen of which will be M. A. Kornreich and Creed Erickson. A detailed listing of individuals and stores who will have tickets for sale will be made early next week.

The principal speaker for the evening will be "Rip" Engle, head football coach at Penn State. He will bring with him a fine array of football moves the high light of which will be the game between Penn State and Rutgers, said to be one of the finest action football films ever filmed. Since "Rip" Engle's visit will coincide with mid-term vacation at Penn State two former Warren High School stars, now performing for Penn State, will accompany their coach—Ted Shattuck and Keith Vesling.

"Steve" Tritt is general chairman of a large and active committee having charge of details and arrangements for this year's dinner. Early in January Mr. Tritt's committee will have a more comprehensive program to announce. In the meantime it is hoped the sale of tickets for this dinner will meet with a heavy response from sports Boosters and fans in general.

Owner of Fabulous Calumet Farm Dies At Miami Beach

(P)—Warren Wright, 75, owner of the fabulous Calumet Farm Thoroughbred Racing Stable, died at his winter home here last night after an illness of three weeks.

Wright was master of the most successful racing and breeding thoroughbred farm in the history of the American turf.

Wright and his wife, the former Miss Lucille Parker of Maysville, Ky., arrived here early in December for the winter. He was stricken three weeks ago and died at 8:45 p. m. (EST). Death was attributed to natural causes.

Mrs. Wright and their son, Warren, Jr., were with him at the end. The son arrived here two weeks ago from Lexington, Ky.

Wright, slender and quiet-spoken, had an inherent love for race horses and he bred them to win. He traveled thousands of miles to see his thoroughbreds run, but made only an occasional sentimental wager.

He began building his turf empire in 1931 when he inherited the bulk of his father's $30,000,000 estate. The father, William Monroe Wright, had founded the Calumet Baking Powder Company in Chicago in 1888.

The elder Wright himself had been a successful breeder and turfman and won the Hambletonian, Kentucky futurity and other major harness events.

His estate included the Calumet Farm near Lexington, Ky., which the son inherited.

Associated Press Writer Predicts Bowl Game Results

New York, Dec. 29.—(P)—Two-platoon football has become so popular that the gridiron sport has two seasons during each year—the scheduled program in the fall and the bowl "season" on January 1.

But to prove to you that the two seasons are really one, here are the winners of the coming bowl contests.

Saturday, Dec. 30.

East-west shrine game at San Francisco: the eastern forces, with Everett Grandelius of Michigan State as the spear, are seven points favorites to chalk up a fourth straight triumph.

Blue-gray at Montgomery, Ala.; Dan Foldberg and Chuck Shura, members of the unbeaten team that represented that grand old southern school, the U. S. military academy at West Point, N. Y., are members of the Dixie Eleven. If the southerners can defeat geography that easily why can't they beat the northern football team? The south, sub, by seven.

Monday, Jan. 1, Rose Bowl at Pasadena: Michigan over California.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans: Oklahoma over Kentucky.

Cotton Bowl at Dallas: Texas over Tennessee.

Orange Bowl at Miami: Clemson over Miami.

Gator Bowl at Jacksonville: Wyoming over Washington and Lee.

Cigar Bowl at Tampa, Fla.: Valparaiso over LaCrosse (Wis.) teachers.

Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.: Cincinnati over West Texas State.

Salad Bowl at Phoenix, Ariz.: Arizona State of Tempe over Miami of Ohio.

Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla.: Morris Harvey over Emory and Henry.

Pineapple Bowl at Honolulu: Denver over Hawaii.

Louisiana Mother Says Housework Is Much Easier

HADACOL Supplied Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin And Iron, Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Leo Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters, Wilma Jean, 5 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed. . . now that she has been taking HADACOL, Mrs. Picard found HADACOL helped her system to overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL relieves the cause of vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamin B1, B2, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These previous Vitamins and Minerals are more easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas" After reading Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HAD-

ACOL how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it can do for you if you're troubled with vague aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and take immediately!

Sold on a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close as hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive—too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. Copyright, 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

The Changing Landscapes

HAROLD W. GEIGER

Hello, folks. What a real winter this has turned out to be. The rough weather continues to take its toll on wildlife as it searches for winter food under the heavy blanket of snow.

With all the snow, conservation farmers are continuing to make plans for installation of conservation practices on their farms next spring.

Bob Morley, Lander farmer, completed making his farm conservation plan last week with the assistance of Ralph G. Eckert, Soil Conservation Service technician. Bob has scheduled the building of several terraces on his crop fields to improve drainage. He also plans extensive pasture improvement and retirement of some rough land to perennial hay.

Another Lander farmer, Paul Rowland, also made his conservation farm plan with Ralph's help. Paul's big problem is poor drainage. He expects to remove most of the excess water with underground tile drain. Paul's pasture is also due for some improvement and he plans several sod waterways to control gullying in the low places through his meadows.

One of Paul's neighbors, Mitchell Mikan completed his farm conservation plan the same week. Terracing, to improve drainage in a cropland is one practice that will receive Mitchell's attention. Pasture improvement is also included as a part of his conservation plan.

Herman Moll, tree dealer from Russell, and tree farmer in Pine Grove township, finished making his plan for about 1900 acres. Herman's plan deals chiefly with tree planting and woodland management. He plans to harvest some of the evergreens for Christmas trees while permitting the remainder to grow into future timber supply.

Clair Pierce, from Sanford Corners, stopped in the other day to inquire about tree seedlings for reforestation. Clair had planted an acre last spring and wanted to plant more this spring as part of his conservation farm plan. What I explained to Clair might be worth repeating here.

The directors of the Warren County Soil Conservation District have changed their tree seedling allotment policy due to a reduced number of seedlings now available to the district. (These seedlings are made available to local districts by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service each planting season.) From now on, each farmer cooperating with the district may receive up to 1000 trees for his first year's planting. Future plantings will have to be made with seedlings secured from the state or private nurseries by the farmer himself.

The Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters will furnish tree seedlings for $6.00 per thousand and transplants at $15.00 per
